ALLEGED BANDITS CAUGHT

Quincy and Boston Police Recover Stolen Car After Sensational Raid

Two autoloads of Quincy and Boston policemen in a gun battle with several youths preceded the arrest today of five young men at Hough's Neck.

After being booked at Quincy on charges of stealing automobiles, the quintette was turned over to the Boston police, to whom they gave the following names and addresses:

William O. Tuttle, twenty-one, of Rock Island road, Hough's Neck.

James Lanch, nineteen, Antrim street, Cambridge.

The roundup and arrest of the five men was the result of an all-night pursuit by Captain Alfred W. Goodhue of the Quincy police, and Inspectors Crawford, Cavagnaro and Claflin of Boston.

FIRE AT FUGITIVE.

Some ten shots were fired by the police and one of the alleged auto bandits during a gun battle in Rogers street, Hough's Neck, Captain Goodhue and Inspector Crawford firing at a fugitive who returned their fire and escaped.

The roundup began when Captain Goodhue saw a new roadster halt in City square, Quincy. This car contained two men, one of whom went into a store and bought a package of cigarettes. Captain Goodhue, noting that the number plates of the machine has been "doctored," and thinking one of the youths answered the description of a notorious auto thief much wanted by the local authorities, followed the machine in his own car.

He lost track of the speedster just before reaching the Fore River works, where he stopped to telephone to the

Congressional Committees Move to Curb Profiteers; Government Accused

Washington, Aug. 14.—The attention of district attorneys throughout the country was called by the Department of Justice today to the decision of George M. Rolfe of the Sugar equalization committee that 11 cents a pound is a "fair price" for sugar. The notices were sent out by C. B. Ames, assistant to the attorney-general, for the information and guidance of the district attorneys in the campaign against profiteers.

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Attorney-General Palmer's request for amendments putting teeth into the food control act and extending its provisions to clothing and containers of foods and feeds were taken up today at meetings of the Senate Agricultural Committee and a sub-committee of the House Agricultural Committee.

A favorable report will be submitted almost immediately, Senate and House leaders believe.

Wholesale confiscation of foodstuffs held in cold storage plants and warehouses in Chicago and proposed drastic action against food hoarders and profiteers that has sent prices on many commodities tumbling there were expected to have still further effects. With reports of seizures of large quantities of food in several cities throughout the country, similar action immediately is forecast in Chicago and vicinity.

FIRST TEST CASE.

The first test case will be against the Central Sugar Company of Chicago. Complaint has been made that this company has 70,000 pounds of sugar at Rockford, Ill., where it is asking 14½ cents a pound.

FISHERMEN'S STRIKE IS ENDED

The strike of Boston and New England fishermen, which had been in force since July 8, ended today, when the arbitration board which has been hearing both sides for a week, announced a minimum wholesale price scale, that is satisfactory to the members of the union. Immediately after the board's finding it was announced that the men would resume work late today.

The fishermen did not ask for higher wages, but in demanding a higher price minimum are benefited in their earnings, as they receive a percentage of the total value of a catch. Hence the strike settlement will undoubtedly boost retail prices.

The schedule fixed by the arbitration board is temporary. It will be in force from August 15 to October 15. The exact percentage of increase per pound was not revealed, but there was a sufficient advance to pleace the fishermen.

Chairman McClennen announced that the board will meet again early in September to consider various phases of the industry in greater detail and after the additional data has been collected a permanent schedule will be submitted to the fishermen's union and the shipowners for ratification.

Meanwhile, the temporary scale introduced today will put in operation an industry the interruption of which at this port has involved heavy financial loss.

Under the temporary schedule the fishermen are to get their increased percentage on the wholesale purchase price per catch whether the wholesalers make up the difference by raising the retail price or not. That is a problem for the shipowners and distributors.

The new scale under the settlement follows: New fish—haddock, 4½ cents; steak cod, 6 cents; market cod, 4½; small cod, 3; large hake, 6½; small hake, 3; pollock (no cull), 4; cusk, 3½; halibut, over five pounds, known as white halibut, 15 cents; gray halibut, 15 cents; chicken halibut, 10 cents.

"STAY OUT" NEW HAVEN MEN VOTE

Threat of Expulsion Fails to Influence Defiant Shopmen

The railroad situation in New England was further complicated today by the announcement that striking shopmen in New Haven had voted not to return to work.

This action, news of which was secured from an official of the Federation, came as a complete surprise, and was in flat defiance of the orders of union officials.

In Chicago rebellious shopmen were threatened with expulsion from the union and the forfeit of any benefits which may be derived from prospective negotiations.

Officials of the Chicago councils presented the men at a meeting a telegram from B. M. Jewell, head of the Shopmen's Union, which read:

"Make orders positive to all points, now is the time to act. We cannot much longer relay, and if you refuse to comply will be compelled to advise Hines and Wilson, if necessary, that you do not belong to the organization. If negotiations are resumed, strikers will be deprived of benefits."

How the vote at New Haven resulted in detail could not be ascertained, but it was stated that a press committee consisting of President Porter and Secretary Henderson of the Federation would make the official announcement later.

EMBARGO MENACES WORKERS.

Thousands of New Englanders will be thrown out of employment and face destitution unless the striking railroad shopmen go back to work at once, it became evident today.

Mills and manufactories in large numbers will be forced to curtail production or close down because of the shortage of raw materials and coal due to the freight embargo.

As an evidence of the suffering that

TURKEY WELL SLICED IN KING RESOLUTION

Washington, D. C., Aug. 14.—A resolution declaring it to be the sense of the Senate that West or Bulgarian Thrace and East and Turkish Thrace, including Adrianapole, should be awarded to Greece in the Turkish and Bulgarian treaties of peace, with proper provisions for Bulgarian commerce at Salonika and other cities was introduced in the Senate by Senator King of Utah.

The resolution also makes it the sense of the Senate the residue of Turkey should be made a free state under the protection of the League of Nations.

TROOPS GUARD PARIS MARKETS FROM RIOTERS

Paris, Aug. 14.—Troops are picketed about the Central markets here as a result of the rioting. Food sales were normal but prices were not any lower. During the fighting between venders and price vigilant committees, shops were looted.

Mrs. Frothingham Left Estate of More Than a Million

Stephen H. Roberts of Newton has filed a bond for $1,500,000 in the Suffolk Registry of Probate, executor of the will of Mrs. Eugenia Frothingham, a widow, who lived at No. 476 Beacon street and died on August 4. The value of personal property left by Mrs. Frothingham is estimated at $1,-000,000 and real estate $40,000.

By her will her estate is to be divided equally between her daughters, Eugenia Brooks Frothingham and Olga Frothingham, and her son, Charles Mifflin Frothingham.

Mrs. Frothingham was a large owner of the capital stock of the Frothingham Buildings Trust.

JUDGE LOGAN SENDS TWO AUPTO THIEVES TO PRISON

Judge Edward L. Logan of South Boston District Court today declared war on auto thieves when he sentenced Frank Marlo of East Eighth street and Frank Manuel of Emerson street to serve a month in jail for misappropriating an automobile owned by John Reardon.

In reply to Attorney Fred Keenan's plea for leniency, Judge Logan said:

"Everything possible ought to be done to discourage the growing evil of automobile thefts. It has come to be a public nuisance. I think an example should be made of these young men and I intend to give them jail sentences to warn others."

Marlo and Manuel are alleged to have taken Reardon's car from a Broadway garage and driven it to a beach. Reardon had to pay $91 for repairs when the automobile was recovered.

HENRY FORD CASE GOES TO THE JURY

Mt. Clemens, Mich., Aug. 14.—The Henry Ford-Chicago Tribune million-dollar suit went to the jury at 10 o'clock today. A verdict is expected late today. Judge Tucker in his charge to the jury declared that the Tribune was at liberty to criticize a man of Ford's standing, but at the same time pointed out that certain uses of the word anarchist were actionable. The automobile manufacturer based his suit for $1,000,000 on an editorial published in the Tribune under the caption, "Ford Is an Anarchist."

SENATORS VOTE TO GO AND SEE WILSON

Foreign Relations Committee Will Confer With President on Treaty at White House

By International News Service.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee this afternoon agreed to go to the White House to confer with President Wilson on the Treaty of Versailles.

The committee also voted to resume open hearings on the treaty, so that Colonel E. M. House, one of the American delegates to the peace conference, and others, might be heard.

There is "strong possibility" that President Wilson will start on his Western trip as soon as the Treaty of Versailles is out of the hands of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, it was stated at the White House today.

The President was represented as being keenly interested in reports that efforts were being made to speed up action on the treaty, and it was stated that as soon as it reached the floor of the Senate he would feel at liberty to leave on his trip.

It was reiterated that the President has remained in Washington that he might be available to the Senate committee and also to await progress upon legislation designed to bring down the cost of living.

The reporting out of the treaty would be regarded by the President, it was stated, in a two-fold light. It would relieve him of the necessity of remaining in Washington in the event of the committee desiring his counsel and at the same time he would take the attitude that a long step had been taken toward the restoration of normal, peacetime conditions, with a consequent approach to the pre-war scale of prices.

It was pointed out that in his address to Congress last week the President laid special stress upon his belief that delayed action on the treaty was responsible in a great measure for some of the present conditions.

ORDERS BLANKS BY THOUSANDS FOR DISCHARGES

Police Commissioner Edwin U. Curtis today prepared for wholesale discharges in the Boston Police Department by sending rush orders to the City Printing Plant for several thousand suspension and dismissal blanks.

This action of the Commissioner in itself marks an entirely new method of suspending or dismissing police officers. Heretofore policemen subject to suspension or dismissal were found guilty by a trial board of superior officers and their suspension or dismissal read in a general order.

Intense bitterness spread among the men of the force today when the Commissioner's order for the blanks became known. Many of the men saw in it a determined effort of the Commissioner to stamp out unionism from the force.

The knowledge of the blanks came at the same time that the night men of the force received notice to attend a mass meeting in Fay Hall, Washington and Dover streets, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, to hear a committee report on the formation of a policemen's union.

The day men meet tomorrow evening in the same hall. The announcement has gone forth among the men that at that time the officers of the new union will be named.

SHY ON OFFICERS.

What effect the knowledge that Commissioner Curtis has prepared for wholesale discharges will have on the announcement of the officers, the patrolmen active in union matters were at a loss to define today. They said that already the nominating committee was finding it difficult to get men to serve as officers because they feared

GEN. HARBORD GONE TO PROBE ARMENIA'S WOES

Washington, Aug. 14.—Major-General James C. Harbord, who was in charge of the United States service of supply in France, has left for Armenia, where he will conduct an investigation of the disordered conditions existing in that country, the State Department announces. Rumors that General Harbord's trip was in connection with a proposed mandatory over Armenia by the United States were denied.

SWEEPING COAL INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Washington, Aug. 14.—Another attack on the high cost of living was made in the Senate this afternoon when the audit and control committee ordered a favorable report on a resolution calling for a sweeping investigation of coal production, consumption and prices.

NEW YORK ORDERS 400 CARLOADS OF FOOD

New York, Aug. 14.—The city placed an order with the government for 400 carloads of surplus army food at $1,527,400. This amount will be paid in thirty days. The food will be put on sale in 183 public schools here next Monday at prices one and two cents above cost.

N. H. SUFFRAGISTS WIN SPECIAL SESSION PLEA

Concord, N. H., Aug. 14.—For the first time in many years, a special session of the New Hampshire General Court will be held this Fall. Governor Bartlett and the Council voted to call the session September 9 to take action on the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment to the Federal Constitution.

INDUSTRIES SUFFER AS NEW HAVEN SHOPMEN VOTE TO STAY OUT

has already [illegible] caused by the nation-wide strike. It was reported today that thousands of miners and their families in West Virginia face starvation because of the closing down of 300 coal mines, throwing 30,000 men out of work.

New England mill men declare that if the strike is protracted beyond the week they will be forced to close their plants and lay off their employes.

Some are already making attempts to replenish their stocks of supplies and ship their goods by motor transportation, but do not expect to be able to operate at maximum force if motor truck movement are their [illegible] means of shipping their products and bringing in raw materials and [illegible].

The first result of the balloting [illegible] by the men will be known tonight when the [illegible] boards of the system [illegible] of the Boston & [illegible] New Haven and the Boston & Albany [illegible] at the Quincy House. None of the union leaders would hazard a prediction today as to what the decision of the men would be, but the railroad officials are confident that the men will return to work tomorrow morning or Monday.

Out of twelve men employed at the Warren, R. I., shops returned to work today, permitting partial restoration of trolley service on the Consolidated branch of the New Haven between Providence and other points. Railroad officials stated that it was possible full service on this branch would be restored tomorrow.

There was no change today in the situation as regards freight and passenger traffic. The railroad authorities announced that the removal of freight restrictions could not be made until the men returned to work, and as a result manufacturers are awaiting the result of the strikers' ballot with great anxiety.

Acting Manager Richard R. Rice of the General Electric Company's Lynn plant declared yesterday that continuance of the strike much longer would seriously inconvenience the company and would result in the shut down of many departments. Considerable material on way to the plant is being delayed, but the company has not yet been seriously affected by the strike. Large amounts of completed products are piling up through inability to ship them to their destination because of the embargo. The company at present has about 12,500 names on the payroll at the Lynn plant.

Prolongation of the strike will hit the Lowell mills hard. Agent Wadley of the Massachusetts mill said that within a few days his company would be greatly affected. Other Lowell mills are receiving supplies and shipping products in roundabout ways. While 1,200 freight cars usually enter and leave Lowell in twenty-four hours, the number had been reduced by the strike today to 900.

The United Shoe Machinery Company's plant at Beverly is seriously affected so far as transportation of employes to and from work is concerned, according to George H. Vose, general superintendent.

EMPLOYES HIT.

A great number of the 5,000 persons employed by the firm commuted from outside cities and towns, and with the stopping of local train service have found difficulty in getting to and from work. Production is not seriously affected so far. The firm has supplies, including steel, lumber and other materials, sufficient to last several days more.

Charles P. Kelley, superintendent of the A. C. Lawrence Leather Company, Peabody, employing 2,000 persons, said that the strike had caused inconveniences which within a week would grow very serious.

Taunton industries will begin to suffer from lack of raw materials and supplies by Saturday, according to Frank L. Locklin, secretary of the Manufacturers' and Employers' Association. Many of the large firms there are making shipments by motor truck.

Hundreds of other companies are in the same situation as regards supplies and material, according to railroad officials and others in touch with conditions.

WILL NOT BREAK STRIKE.

Rumors prevalent to the effect that the three railroads planned to hire strikebreakers if the men did not return to work Saturday, were declared to be without foundation by Percy R. Todd, district federal director, with offices in the South station.

A few negro coal shovelers were employed yesterday by the Boston & Maine in the places of men on strike, but the officials of the road denied they were strike breakers or that the employment of strike breakers was being considered. The negroes, so officials stated, were often hired for shoveling coal even when a full complement of men were at work.

SHOT IN STRIKE RIOTS AT PEORIA, ILL.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 14.—In an exchange of shots between several hundred rioters and guards at the plant of the Firestone Wire & Steel Company, where a strike is in progress, three persons were wounded. Two were department executives and one was a striker.

So serious had the situation become that a call for troops was sent to Springfield. Governor Lowden ordered the 10th Illinois Infantry here from Danville. It was expected that the troops would arrive at daylight.

Desultory firing between rioters and guards continued, but there were no additional casualties up to midnight.

CONVICTS BRAINTREE MAN HELD AS BIGAMIST

Herman Steimloski of Braintree was convicted of bigamy in Quincy Court today, and sentenced to one year in jail. He appealed, and was held in $3,000 bail for the Superior Court. Jennie Barton, the English girl whom he "married" at Manchester, England, early this year, announced she would "stick by him," in spite of the claims of Mrs. Nellie Evans Steimloski of Springfield, N. H., his legal wife. Miss Barton protested Steimloski was innocent, and thought he was free to take a wife. He met her while he was on shore leave from an American ship. Miss Barton was Steimloski's third matrimonial partner, his first wife having died.

FINED FOR IGNORING TRAFFIC DIRECTOR

It cost Rudolph Dickman $25 for his failure to heed the semaphore arm of Patrolman Francis on Washington street near Massachusetts avenue yesterday. After Judge Parmenter had heard the evidence of the policeman, who said that Dickman in his car flashed by him despite his warning gestures, he imposed the fine.

the sale of millions of pounds of army foods was charged today by J. A. [illegible], president of the National Retail Grocers' Association at a meeting called by Mayor Schreiber in Toledo, Ohio, to discuss food producers.

Elmer charged that the government was holding three million pounds of prunes at 22 cents a pound which it bought, he declared, for 5½ cents a pound. He also charged similar profiteering in canned pineapples.

Meanwhile the attorney-general's drive against hoarders and profiteers under the law as it now stands was being waged with unabated vigor.

Following the first arrest today of a Binghamton, N. Y., grocer, who sold sugar for 15 cents a pound—reports of many more prosecutions were expected to reach the department during the remainder of the week, officials said.

TO APPROPRIATE $1,500,000.

Facing requests for appropriations totalling more than $1,500,000 from various government agencies and bureaus for the fight against the high cost of living, the House Appropriations Committee today began framing legislation necessary to release this fund from the treasury.

Federal Trade Commissioners Colver and Murdock today presented their arguments to Chairman Good of the committee, the commission having asked for $500,000 in addition to grants previously made, in order to undertake the vast number of investigations demanded into various industries producing or controlling the production of necessities.

Within a day or two Secretaries Wilson of Labor, Redfield of Commerce and Houston of Agriculture will explain to the Appropriations Committee their needs for money and special employes with which to carry on their part of the campaign.

Following these presentations the committee will rush to the House its recommendation for emergency appropriations, and the House is sitting in daily sessions to be prepared to act without delay.

ABANDON STEAMER ON NOVA SCOTIA LEDGE

Convinced that the Boston steamer North Star, which struck on Green Island ledge off the Nova Scotia Coast last Friday, cannot be saved, the Eastern Steamship line's officials here have abandoned the vessel to the underwriters.

The work of stripping the vessel of all movable fittings and gear, as well as linens, bedding and furnishings, is now being carried on by salvage vessels.

TRUCK HITS AGED SOUTH BOSTON MAN

While crossing in front of No. 655 East Fifth street, South Boston today, James J. Murphy, eighty-four, of No. 545 East Fourth street, was hit by an automobile truck owned by the Turner Centre Creamery and operated by Francis B. Humphrey of Chelsea. At the Carney Hospital he was found to be suffering from a fractured right ankle and nervous shock.

BACKFIRE DAMAGES NEWSDEALER'S TRUCK

The automobile truck of Samuel Saxe, newsdealer of Newspaper row, was damaged to the extent of $100 today when the motor backfired on Sudbury street. Fire apparatus poured into Bowdoin square in response to an alarm. The blaze was quickly extinguished.

WOMEN BRAVE RAIN TO BUY ARMY FOOD

Several Stations Open for Business: General Sale Is Resumed Tomorrow

[illegible] published announcements, several food distribution stations were open for business in Greater Boston today.

These included the following: Hall School, Quincy street, Roxbury; Ward 17 Municipal Building, Dudley street, Roxbury; Curtis Hall, Jamaica Plain; headquarters of the Daughters of the Nation, No. 1840 Centre street, West Roxbury, and the South Boston station in East Broadway.

All the other stations in the city open tomorrow, as previously announced. The exceptions listed above were those stations which on last Tuesday failed to get their supplies, or got only a portion of them, receiving belated consignments yesterday or early today.

Cambridge placed $10,000 worth of the canned goods on sale at the City Hall and various schoolhouses this morning.

When the majority of the Boston stations open tomorrow there will be two new centres added since Tuesday—at the Comins School, Roxbury Crossing, and the Tileston School, Mattapan.

Brookline joins the rest of the greater city tomorrow in the sale of the army goods, the station being located at No. 214 Washington street. This station will open at 9 and close at 5 tomorrow, and open at 9 and close at 5 on Saturday. Next week those Brookline people who have placed orders for the goods will be notified to take them away.

The Farragut, Sherwin and Lowell School stations in Roxbury were to have opened today, but their shipments had not arrived from the army base, and the opening was postponed to tomorrow.

Miss Hilda A. Hedstrom, chairman of the food committee for the Roxbury district, today recommended to housewives the six-pound cans of roast beef and corned beef as particularly good purchases.

WOMEN BUYERS DEFY RAIN.

The heavy rain did not prevent the housewives of South Boston from turning out in hundreds today to buy canned vegetables, salmon and bacon at the food depot in the Municipal Building, which was opened for the first time at 10 a. m.

Women and children flocked to the big building on East Broadway, tugging along baskets and improvised carts to carry home purchases. Some used baby carriages and "coasters" and other toy carts used by children in play.

It was a curious but grim shopping day. Back of it all were the domestic problems that confront the nation. Children helped old women to haul their bundles. Many clubbed with neighbors and bought boxes of canned goods.

The sales were in the room on the second landing formerly used by the Red Cross. Long lines awaited their turns. They were wet, but good-natured for the most part. Many came from the poorer section. Mrs. J. S. Fox and her assistants worked hard. If the weather had been fair it would have been difficult to handle the crowd.

The first day of South Boston's municipal food station to beat the high cost of living was a success.

CAMBRIDGE FOOD STATIONS CROWDED

Despite the heavy downpour, residents of Cambridge flocked to the basement of City Hall and schoolhouses in that city today and bought all the canned vegetables available. Volunteer workers were kept busy until the noon hour, when all the canned vegetables were disposed of. During the afternoon canned meats were sold, but the demand for canned vegetables continued, and the committee in charge decided to order another carload tomorrow.

Ten Saved as Six Sand Barges Sink in the Sound

By International News Service.

Stamford, Ct., Aug. 14.—Lashed by heavy seas and tossed about by a wild northeaster that raged last night on the Sound, six barges loaded with sand, being towed by the tug Phoenix and consigned to Doherty Brothers, Bridgeport, sank in the Sound off here during the night, according to report received here today.

Ten persons, six men and four women, who were on the barges, were rescued by the crew of the Phoenix, taken aboard the tug and brought to this city. The barges belonged to the Goodwin & Gallagher transportation line of New York.

The tax rate of Melrose, announced today, will be $26.20, an increase of $2.80 over last year. It was necessary to raise $79,000 more this year in taxes, the total being $589,784.96, against $510,523.35 last year.

The loss in income taxes to the city this year was $26,600, while the total valuation was $20,202,075, against $19,476,375. Of this year's tax $1,950,000 was personal, a gain of $300,000, and $18,252,000 real estate, a gain of $750,000.

FEDERAL AGENTS CALLED BACK FROM VACATIONS

In order that every government facility may be used in the food probe in and about Boston, all agents of the Department of Justice here have been called back from their vacations for the present.

No special session of the Federal grand jury has been called yet, although the September list has been made up, but the United States District Attorney is expected to announce some action within a few days.

SUE CEMENT MAKERS UNDER ANTI-TRUST LAW

Washington, Aug. 14.—A suit in equity for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust law has been brought by the government at Trenton, N. J., against the Cement Manufacturers' Protective Association.

ALLEGED AUTO THIEVES IN DUEL WITH POLICE

Quincy and Boston Officers Make Five Arrests After Swapping Shots

The two autos filled with Quincy and Boston officers then went to Hough's Neck, where in Rogers street they found a cottage brilliantly lighted. A man standing in front of this was arrested by the officers as he shouted "Here's the cops."

Three young men then dashed from the house, and fled down the road. Drawing their revolvers, the officers fired after them, and it is claimed one of the fugitives turned and held the police at bay with an automatic pistol, from which he fired several shots.

Inspector Crawford and Captain Goobhue, however, captured two of the fugitives, who were placed under arrest. Six other young men in the house were released after being questioned.

The officers then went to the foot of C street, Quincy, where they found John Mahoney, alias Joseph La Farge, in a group of loungers outside a dance hall. The prisoners were booked in Quincy and then turned over to the Boston inspectors, who brought them to this city.

The Boston police say that La Farge served nine months for the theft of an auto in 1917, and had a previous record.

They are holding La Farge and James Mahoney on a charge of stealing the roadster, valued at $3,500, from Dr. James P. Piper, of No. 179 Newbury street. The car was recovered.

North Reading Inventory

An inventory of the estate of Henry A. Upton of North Reading who died March 30, 1919, has been filed. The estate is valued at $49,911.66; $25,151.66 in personal property and $24,760 in real estate.

CURTIS READY TO BAN UNION OF POLICE

Bluecoats Embittered by Attitude of Commissioner; Meetings Called the publication of their names might lead to immediate dismissal.

The committee to report to the men at the meetings was appointed to confer with officials of the American Federation of Labor for the securing of a charter under that body for the new policemen's union. Several well-known labor leaders are scheduled to address the meeting and steer the budding policemen's union into being.

When Commissioner Curtis placed the order with the city printing plant he made it a "rush" order. Members of the force were nonplussed today and interpreted the haste of the order to mean that the commissioner was preparing to open active war on the union.

CURTIS' ATTITUDE DEFINED.

The commissioner is on record in a general order read at roll call last Tuesday evening in which he forbade any member of the force to join the union.

In that order he said that if a police officer joined a union, "the situation immediately arises that always arises when a man attempts to serve two masters—he must fail either in his duty as a policeman or to his obligation to the organization that controls him."

Again at the Constitutional Convention session Wednesday Commissioner Curtis put himself on record as opposed to police unions when speaking on the Pillsbury amendment that would, if passed, have forbidden an employe of a public service corporation to join a labor union.

Replying to Councillor Moriarty's reference to a police union, Commissioner Curtis said in effect he was determined to stick to his guns and oppose unionization of the Boston police force.

GIRL HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGES

Mate Burnett, However, Will Chase Her to France in a Dory, if the Worst Comes

Gloom has chased out all the joy from the life of Theodore Burnett, mate of the good ship Horatio G. Foss, but hunger for the love of his French bride is still strong. She is held by the immigration authorities, pending decision as to whether she is a proper person.

Mademoiselle Marie Alfreda Pauline Dheilly Burnett—that is the name of the bride—was married to the first mate of the Foss after she was found on board, a stowaway. That was about two months ago. The wedding took place on the high seas, and Captain Wego Andersen was the minister.

Previous to that there had been considerable wooing on the part of Burnett, while his ship was at Cette, loading salt. She is the daughter of a commandant of French marines, and her home is in Amiens.

Now that she is detained, on evidence given before a special board of inquiry, the nature of which is said to have been admitted by the bride, the husband and the captain, Burnett's plans are upset.

FACES DEPORTATION.

She may be deported, and if she is, says Burnett, he will follow her to France, even if he has to row all the way over in a dory.

Already Burnett has appealed to the French consul at Boston in an effort to frustrate the immigration authorities' plans. His chief argument towards having his bride restored to him is his claim of American citizenship.

Burnett is twenty-seven years old, and so is his bride. In no wise does he question the legality of his marriage, pointing out that the captain of the ship who performed the ceremony is the "very law itself while on the high seas." He strongly refutes the charges against his wife by the special board of inquiry that she is not a proper person to land, but admitted, however, that he had lived with Mrs. Burnett before she became his wife.

WEEPS FOR HER.

In spite of the discouraging outlook Burnett is hopeful that if his bride is not restored to him in Boston they will come together in France. His chief concern is in the present situation, for he fears that his wife is fast wearing herself away while a prisoner at the Immigration Bureau. This fear, he said, has made him shed tears almost continually since his wife was taken from him.

"She's hysterical," he says, "and she'll be a physical and mental wreck when she is restored to me—if the immigration officials will not let me have her back here in Boston. Of course, if they don't see fit to do that and decide that she should be deported, my wife and I won't be separated long, for I will follow her across the Atlantic at the first opportunity. I'll row over in a dory if I have to."

Henry J. Skeffington, commissioner of immigration, stated that a special board of inquiry had ordered the girl debarred from landing and had submitted a report to him recommending her deportation. The recommendation, Commissioner Skeffington said, followed evidence that tended to show the woman was not a proper person to land here. The evidence is of a startling nature.

IRELAND IS AN AMERICAN QUESTION.

Ireland's past, present and future are too closely linked with the history of the United States to permit any American to ignore the determined effort that the Irish are making to attain their independence. The situation is dealt with in masterly fashion by Edward F. McSweeney in six great articles on the situation as it stands today, the first article appearing next Sunday in the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

QUINCY MAN CHIEF OF BARRE, VT., FIREMEN

Barre, Vt., Aug. 14.—The Barre Board of Aldermen announced today that Arthur G. Preble of Quincy, Mass., had been appointed chief of the Barre fire department, at a salary of $1,500. In spite of determined opposition by Aldermen Michael Keefe and H. W. Scott, Mr. Preble was appointed. The appointment of Mr. Preble was made after two other appointments for the position by Mayor E. C. Glysson had been rejected unanimously, the first being that of Edward R. Tierney of Barre and the second, that of Charles A. Cardani of the Boston fire department. Mr. Preble is at present connected with the Fore River fire department at Quincy.

DIRTY BOTTLES, POOR CREAM CAUSE FINES

Judge Logan in South Boston District Court today fined Alden Bros., Tremont street, $15 for having unclean milk bottles in their possession, and fined the Waldorf Lunch of West Broadway, $15 for having cream below the standard. Professor James O. Jordan of the Bureau of Milk Inspection was complainant.

CHORUS GIRLS ACTIVE IN STRIKE

This actor refused to join his fellow thespians in theatrical walkout, in New York City. It cost him coat when two "strong arm" chorus girl pickets dragged him from the stage door.

BOSTON ACTORS WILL NOT STRIKE

Are Ordered to Obey Injunction Issued by the Superior Court

As the result of an injunction issued by Judge Lawton of the Superior Court forbidding Hal Forde and all the other leading actors in "Oh, My Dear," at the Wilbur Theatre, from interfering in any way with the production of that show, possibilities of an actors' strike in Boston were eliminated for the present.

Mr. Forde, who is the acknowledged leader of members of the Actors' Equity Association now playing in this city, has ordered all members of the association to obey the court's order to the letter.

Barbers and Landladies Aid New York Actors, With 13 Shows Closed

New York, Aug. 14.—The striking actors, actresses and chorus girls won support from unexpected sources today, following their success last night when they forced the closing of the Ziegfeld "Follies," reputed to be the costliest show in New York, and "39 East," making the number of darkened theatres thirteen.

The union barbers announced that as tonsorial artists they stood by the artists of the stage and voted to impose a fine of $5 on any barber attending a non-union show. Furtherfore, the barbers decided that if any actor-looking person came in for a shave he must show his membership card in the Equity Association.

LANDLADIES AID STRIKE.

Other words of encouragement came from the unorganized landladies of rooming houses in the side streets running off Broadway in the Thirties, Forties and Fifties. The chorus girls reported that some of these, who had always been suspected of having adamant hearts under their Mother Hubbards, had volunteered to let the little matter of the weekly room rent slide by until the girls are back at work again.

A cold drizzling rain had a quite distressing effect on the strike today. The actresses and chorus girls, wrapped in raincoats, gathered about strike headquarters in Forty-fifth street, not minding the downpour a bit. But, as in other strikes, the innocent had to suffer and their poor, little French poodles, wet to the skin, shivered and coughed in the cold. The girls said that only went to prove what brutes the managers were.

BUT THE GIRLS WENT OUT.

The closing of the "Follies" in spite of the injunction restraining the principals and chorus from striking, was the sensation of the day along Broadway. A few hours before the evening performance, Flo Ziegfeld assembled his chorus beauties and reminded them that he had always bought their shoes and stockings for the theatre and had never routed them out of bed early in the morning for rehearsals.

"Why, the girls in the 'Midnight Frolic' have never been called before 2 o'clock in the afternoon," said Ziegfeld, impressively.

Ice Dealers Ordered to Limit Deliveries to Customers

Families are to be limited to two-thirds their normal purchase of ice as a result of orders issued to all ice dealers in Greater Boston, except in cases where there is sickness or other emergencies.

This is the first action taken by the Commission on the Necessaries of Life, following a conference with the advisory ice dealers' committee. The commission finds that the shortage is 40 per cent. of the normal requirements for the balance of the season.

The commission declares the move necessary to forestall the threatening famine which would cause much suffering and waste of perishable foodstuffs.

WOMAN BREAKS WINDOWS WITH BIG STONES

Does Much Damage in Charlestown Before She Is Arrested

Charlestown residents along Main street, between Salem street and Thompson square, early today were rudely awakened from their slumbers by the crash of glass, broken by a woman, believed to be demented, who was the housekeeper for a family living at No. 108 High street, Charlestown. She is Cora Seems, twenty-three, formerly of the Danvers State Hospital.

She went to the Charlestown family a day or two ago. Early today she left her room and wandered through Thompson square to Main street. Main street is torn up and large paving stones are piled upon the edge of the curbing, within a few feet of the stores. As she approached each window she picked up a stone and hurled it through, continuing for a distance of 200 feet. Twenty to thirty windows were smashed.

She continued along Main street, smashing windows, until Patrolman Patrick Doyle rushed upon the scene. He struggled with her.

The police sent her to the Psychopathic Hospital, where she is under observation. The damage to the windows runs in hundreds of dollars.

In the devastated area are the stores of M. O'Keefe, John T. Connor, H. Manley & Co., Woolworth's Five and Ten Cent Store, John McGowan & Co., John Savage & Co., Gardner, Bates & Co., Samuel Gordon & Co., Charlestown Furniture Company and the Morgan Memorial Building.

PEACEMAKER FINED $10 FOR SINGLE SLAP

The wife of Robert Crowley, who lives at City Point, became involved in an argument with women neighbors. The husband assumed the role o peacemaker, lost his temper, and slapped Annie King in the face. Judge Logan fined Crowley $10 today for assault in South Boston Court.

MOTHER WILL FIGHT WOMAN FOR CHILD

Worcester Waitress Accused of Kidnaping, Going to Court to Regain Son

Worcester, Aug. 14.—Mrs. Florence Patterson, the comely waitress of Worcester, who was in the Boston Municipal Court on a kidnaping charge, will fight to regain possession of her child.

In the trial it was revealed that two women are fighting for the love of a child.

Several years ago Mrs. Patterson gave her baby boy to a Mrs. Josie Crimmins of Boston to keep. Then Mrs. Crimmins sought to adopt the child and the Probate Court awarded her its custody. For more than a year Mrs. Patterson did not see her offspring, but on a visit to Boston discovered the boy, whose name is George and who is four years of age.

George was at the Crimmins home, where his mother called. Mrs. Crimmins was away on a shopping trip. "My mother love got the better of my judgment and I wanted my boy," she says, explaining why she brought the child to Worcester. She was arrested by Boston police and taken to that city for trial.

Mrs. Crimmins was awarded possession of the boy and Mrs. Patterson placed on probation.

"But they can't keep my boy from me now," she says, and has engaged an attorney to start a legal battle for the lad's possession.

SAYS ITALY NEEDS HELP FOR NEXT NINE MONTHS

London, Aug. 14.—Economic disaster and starvation will threaten Italy unless the associated powers "help Italy over the hill" during the next nine months by supplying sorely needed coal, breadstuffs and meat, according to a high Italian official now in London. "By the end of nine months," he said today, "Italy will be able to go alone. Italy is now getting 1,500,000 tons of coal monthly, but she needs 11,000,000 tons if the industries are to be kept in operation and the railways are to be kept running. The country is genuinely democratic, but it is a case of coal and food or revolution."

TO COVER EUROPE WITH TOBACCO SHOPS

It is believed that the United Retail Stores Corporation plans to establish thousands of retail tobacco shops in Europe and that one of the head men of the new organization will soon go oversea to negotiate with government regias, in France and Italy, for locations in those countries. Regias are tobacco monopolies.

The war is said to have created a tremendous foreign demand for American cigarettes and they will make business for the stores at the start. To popularize them, according to report, clerks and men in charge will be maimed war veterans of the countries thus invaded.

$10 for Speeding

Leslie Youngbloos, colored, of Upton street, Cambridge, was fined $10 in Newton Court today, for overspeeding an auto truck.

BEECKMAN GLAD TO WELCOME DE VALERA

Rhode Island Governor Ignores Protest From Anti-Irish Ministers

Newport, Aug. 14.—Governor Beeckman will ignore the protests of a coterie of Newport county ministers against his receiving President Eamon De Valera when the latter visits this State on August 28, he intimated today. "I shall be glad to welcome Mr. De Valera if he comes to Rhode Island," said the Governor, when told the ministers were objecting that the Irish executive represented "organized rebellion against a friendly power."

In a letter of protest signed by several members of the Ministers' Association of Newport County, strong disapproval of the forthcoming plans for De Valera's reception here is expressed because the distinguished Irishman "is the head of an organized rebellion against a friendly power with which we are at peace."

Among those who are said to have signed the protest are Rev. Stanley Hughes, president of the association, Rev. J. H. Denning of St. George's Church, Rev. C. Edwin Wilcox, pastor of the United Congregational Church, and Rev. Robert White, also pastor of a Newport church. All have declined to discuss their action.

Governor Beeckman was away today and could not be reached by phone, but Colonel Arthur P. Sullivan, in charge of the committee of 100 representing the various Irish organizations who are planning the welcome arraigned the ministers as "alleged Americans" and declared the program would go through without a change.

"We shall pay no attention to the protests of these alleged Americans," he declared.

The letter sent by the ministers to the Governor reads:

"We, the undersigned ministers of churches representing all the religious organizations in the city of Newport have had it brought to our attention that you have been extended an invitation to receive Eamon De Valera, who claims to be president of a republic in progress of formation in Ireland.

"This movement constitutes an armed rebellion against a government with which the United States is on friendly terms and the recognition of the avowed leader on the part of any government authority in this country is a violation of the principles of the covenant of nations and cannot fail to be looked upon with grave apprehension and strong disapproval by a great majority of American citizens.

"To encourage those who are fomenting a rebellion in a friendly country is a serious matter. We hope that the report of your contemplated action may prove to be without foundation."

The letter, it is said, was drawn up at a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A. building in Newport, where the ministers' association meet.

COLORED SAUSAGES BRING MAKER TO GRIEF

Lawrence, Aug. 14.—A Salem sausage manufacturer will be haled into court here tomorrow charged with selling products in this city containing a chemical coloring matter forbidden by municipal health laws. It is said that stores which sold the Salem man's highly colored wares have been doing a flourishing business and that stores which did not have them lost business. Hence the complaint and the action by the Health Board. Chairman Murphy stated that the man's wife would appear if the man could not be located. He is said to have fled the city.

HAND CUT OFF BY SEAPLANE PROPELLER

New Bedford, Aug. 14.—Alfred Charest, one of the crew of a seaplane that came here to stimulate interest in recruiting for the naval aviation corps, lost his right hand in an accident in the harbor.

The seaplane, riding at anchor, was about to get under way and Charest and another member of the crew were raising the anchor. They got it up and the propeller was turning slowly. Charest started to walk backward with the anchor and his hand came into contact with the propeller blade.

ABANDON PLAN TO NEUTRALIZE THRACE

Paris, Aug. 14.—The plan to internationalize Eastern Thrace (in the Southern Balkans) has been abandoned by the peace conference, it was reported in conference circles today. The American delegates are supporting a compromise whereby Bulgaria would gain access to the Aegean Sea by a corridor southward to Dedeagatch, which would be internationalized. The territory to the East and West of this corridor would go to Greece.

MILLINER SWINDLED: SUSPECT IS ARRESTED

Ware, Aug. 14.—Royal B. Leach of No. 20 Adelaide avenue, Providence, alleged to have been in Ware under the name of A. B. Benjamin in June, 1917, has been arrested by Chief B. W. Buckley, charged with obtaining money under false pretences from Miss Harriet H. Wilcox, a milliner on Main street.

ORIENT HEIGHTS WILL HEAR BAND CONCERT

Residents of Orient Heights will be entertained with a concert by the United States Shipping Board band tomorrow night at the junction of Ashley, Bennington and Blackinton streets, according to an announcement today by John H. L. Noyes president of the Orient Heights Improvement Association.

Motor Truck Slides Off Ferryboat to Bottom of Harbor

Service at the North Ferry in East Boston was paralyzed for hours today, when a seven-ton motor truck slid from the deck of the ferryboat John H. Sullivan to the bottom of the harbor, blocking entrance to the slip.

The Sullivan tied up at the Boston side, while divers and lighters were summoned to raise the big automobile.

The truck was the property of the Barton-Farber Coal Company, Border street, East Boston. It was loaded with coal.

The truck was the last vehicle aboard the ferryboat, and was close to the edge of the deck when the brakes loosened, allowing it to slide over the side. A. Giodano, the driver, and J. Mortimer, his helper, saved themselves by jumping. Several smaller vehicles were caught and propelled toward the side of the boat, but were held aboard by deck hands.

The thousands of persons who ordinarily use the North Ferry in reaching Boston were forced to use the South Ferry.

SIX ACCIDENTS ARE FOLLOWED BY LITIGATION

Damages Sought at Cambridge for Death and Alleged Personal Injuries

Walker D. Hines of Washington, D. C., federal director of railroads, is named in a suit by Harry D. Shea of Berlin, N. H., to recover $10,000 for the death of Allen Shea of the same city, of whose estate the plaintiff is administrator. Mr. Shea was killed by a Boston & Maine train while riding in an automobile over a grade crossing at Littleton, Mass. Suit was entered in Cambridge Superior Court.

Several personal injury suits also were filed. Emily Sheibel of Brookline entered suit against Philip Adelon of Cambridge for $10,000, alleging injuries on March 21 of this year by being run down by Adelon's automobile.

Suit for $7,500 has been brought by Leonard K. Dunham of Lexington, alleging that Thomas F. Sidelinker of Wilmington entered his property and cut down valuable trees.

Three alleged collisions, with resultant personal and property damages, are made the basis of suits. Bernard Webber of Bedford sues for $3,000 for injuries and damage to his car, which he claims were due to a collision with an automobile owned by John McKenzie of Cambridge.

Hannah J. Boyd of Newton asks for $5,000 for injuries which she alleges were due to a collision of a car owned by Dennis P. Mahoney of Marlboro with one in which she was riding.

The Boston Elevated is made defendant by Alexander Garabadian of Cambridge, who seeks to recover $2,000 for the loss of services and medical expenses for his wife, who he asserts was injured when a car hit an auto in which she was riding.

Mary Reardon of Somerville, suing the Somerville Olympia Company, alleges that she fell in front of the company's Union Square Theatre because of the icy condition of the walk and was injured.

MOTHER WRITES OF TORTURE IN ARMENIA

Aris D. Chanmessing of No. 94 Bowdoin street, Dorchester, received a letter, the first since 1914, yesterday afternoon, from his aged mother, who is in Drabson, Armenia, telling him of the great hardships the Armenian people had to undergo at the hands of the Turks during the war. Drabson was captured by the Turks early in the war and burned, while its people were subjected to all kinds of torture, his brother and sister being burnt to death. His mother and her parents fled into Russia, but the hardship of the flight was so great on her parents that they died from exposure.

IRELAND AND INDEPENDENCE.

Ireland is and always has been a nation of distinct race. For hundreds of years this race has been under the sovereignty of the British Empire, but during all that time the Irish—the true Irish—have been trying in every conceivable way to secure self-determination. Millions of true Americans are anxious to assist the little island to freedom. Edward F. McSweeney, the best-informed man in Boston on Irish affairs, explains in six great articles, starting next Sunday in the Sunday Advertiser, the inside facts that control the situation.

WORCESTER MEN HELD IN PASSPORT FRAUD

Walter W. Morel and Councilman Charles E. Scott, both of Worcester, were held each in $500 by United States Commissioner Hayes today for a hearing on September 4, on a charge of participating in an alleged conspiracy to defraud the government. The complaint charges that they swore Mahomet Sulseman, an applicant for French safe conduct, was a Syrian, when they knew him to be a Turk.

REVOKES $100 SENTENCE: WILL REIMPOSE IT

Benjamin Gorham of Commonwealth avenue, Allston, was fined $100 in Newton Court today for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. For technical reasons Judge Bacon revoked the sentence, but stated he would reimpose it tomorrow when Gorham said he would have the money with which to pay. Gorham was charged by the Newton police with driving his car into a tree.

BIRDS LEFT TO HARVARD BY BREWSTER

Cambridge Hospital and Boston Natural History Society Also Remembered in His Will

The will of William Brewster, noted ornithologist, of Cambridge, who died on July 11, was filed in the Probate Court at East Cambridge today. No valuation was given. To his wife, Mrs. Caroline F. Brewster, is left the estate at No. 145 Brattle street, Cambridge, its furnishings and automobiles, and $50,000.

His famous collection of birds and manuscripts become the property of the Museum of Comparative Zoology at Harvard. The books on natural history go to the Boston Society of Natural History, and the Brewster Free Academy at Wolfboro, N. H. The remainder of the estate is to be held in trust; his wife to receive the income during her period of life.

After her death, the estate is to be divided as follows: $60,000 to the Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology; $10,000 to the Cambridge Hospital; $20,000 to the Brewster Free Academy at Wolfboro, N. H.; $2,000 to the Nuttall Ornithologist Club of Cambridge; $2,000 to the Massachusetts Audubon Society; $2,000 to the American Ornithologist Union; $2,000 to the Charleston Museum of Natural History, Charleston, S. C. Whatever remains of the estate after the dispositions named goes to the Boston Society of Natural History.

BANK SEEKS AUTO ABANDONED BY GIRL

Providence, Aug. 14.—Legal steps were taken today by the Union Trust Company toward the attachment and sale of the $2,000 automobile abandoned in Boston by Mary A. Yorston, the twenty-two-year-old bank clerk who disappeared just as $4,000 worth of Liberty Bonds were missed by bank officials. The East Greenwich girl has been missing for several weeks. No warrant for her arrest has been asked, nor have the Providence police official knowledge of any charge against her.

The secrecy with which the case has been shrouded is growing even more impenetrable. It is gossip here that this is due to the influence of a wealthy Rhode Island man who was in reality the fictitious "friend in the South" spoken of by the girl as providing the money for her fine dresses and gay parties. It is suspected that this individual is the actual owner of the touring car which the bank seeks to attach.

SAY R. R. MEN THREATEN BOYCOTT OF STORES

Storekeepers in Wakefield complained today that members of Railroad Brotherhoods threatened to boycott local stores because the Wakefield Merchants' and Business Men's Association at a recent meeting had adopted resolutions opposing the Plumb plan for tripartite control of the railroads. The railroad men are said to be planning to open a co-operative store of their own and meanwhile will make purchases in Boston and neighboring towns. The Merchants and Business Men's Association appointed a committee to enlighten the people of Wakefield concerning what they term "the dangers of the Plumb plan." The committee is made up of Charles N. Winship, George H. Taylor and L. L. McMaster.

EDWARDS SENDS GIFTS TO FLAHERTY POST

Gifts from Major-General Clarence R. Edwards will be distributed Saturday evening to members of Lawrence J. Flaherty Post No. 30, American Legion, at its headquarters, No. 50 Meridian street, East Boston. General Edwards has been elected to honorary membership in the post, and to show his appreciation gave the articles with the understanding that they be turned over to all soldiers, sailors and marines from Noddle Island who took part in the world war. "I am personally interested in the success of Lawrence J. Flaherty Post," says General Edwards in a letter. "I thank the boys for the high honor they have conferred upon me."

FACE FAMINE BECAUSE OF R. R. SHOPMAN'S STRIKE

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 14.—Thousands of miners and their families are facing starvation in the isolated Coal River, Cabin Creek and Logan County districts of this State because of the strike of shopmen on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad. Not a car has moved into these districts since last Thursday and word was received today that the supplies could not last for more than two days longer.

MILLION IN BEQUESTS BY ESTABROOK

Many Public Institutions Benefit Under Will of Boston Banker

Public bequests to the amount of nearly $1,000,000 are contained in the will of Arthur Frederic Estabrook, the banker, who lived at No. 346 Commonwealth avenue and died on July 27. They will take effect after the death of Mrs. Ida Florence Estabrook, widow of the testator, who during her life is to enjoy the income of substantially all of Mr. Estabrook's property. She and Theodore A. Estabrook of West Newton, a brother of the banker, are the only heirs at law.

Mrs. Estabrook is to have the use of all real estate owned by her husband except that at Wolfborough, N. H., which is given to the Brewster Free Academy of Wolfborough. She is also given $50,000 outright, and Theodore A. Estabrook is to receive $25,000.

Stedman Buttrick of Concord, Frank B. Bemis of Beverly and Frederick R. Galloupe of Lexington, who are named as executors and trustees, are left a fund of $150,000, the income of which is to be paid to Theodore A. Estabrook for life, and at his death to his wife, Elizabeth B. Estabrook. At the death of both the principal is to be divided among their children.

RESIDUE GOES TO HOSPITAL.

A trust fund of $50,000 is created, and from the income $750 annually is to be paid to Mrs. Harriet A. Hill of Belmont and $300 each annually to Mrs. Sarah A. Thatcher of Cleveland, O., and Mrs. Harriet A. Swan of Arlington. At the death of the last survivor of these beneficiaries the principal of the fund goes into the residue.

At the death of Mrs. Estabrook the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital is to be paid $100,000 and is to have the residue of the estate; the American Unitarian Association, $100,000; Massachusetts Institute of Technology, $100,000; Brewster Free Academy of Wolfboro, N. H., $100,000; Clark University of Worcester, $100,000; New England Conservatory of Music, $50,000; Massachusetts Horticultural Society, $50,000; Arlington Street Church, $50,000; trustees of Public Reservations, $25,000; Rufus Putnam Memorial Association, Rutland, $25,000; Young Men's Christian Union, $25,000.

MANY $10,000 BEQUESTS.

Bequests of $10,000 each are made to the Children's Hospital, Boston Floating Hospital, Massachusetts Charitable Eye and Ear Infirmary, Home for Aged Couples, Massachusetts Association for Promoting Interests of Adult Blind; $5,000 each to the Newton Hospital, Cambridge Hospital, New England Hospital for Women and Children, Boston Lying-in Hospital, Thomas Morgan Rotch, Jr., Memorial Hospital, Free Hospital for Women in Brookline, Waltham Baby Hospital, New England Baptist Hospital, Lynn Hospital, Sharon Sanitarium, Boston Dispensary, Home for Aged Women, Boston Home for Incurables, Children's Island Sanitarium, Boston Children's Aid Society, Boston Children's Friend Society, Cullis Consumptive Home, St. Luke's Home for Convalescents, M. S. P. C. C., Animal Rescue League, Industrial School for Crippled and Deformed Children, President and Fellows of Harvard College for use of Arnold Arboretum, Royal National Mission to Deep Sea Fishermen for the benefit of the department conducted by Dr. W. F. Grenfell, Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, Franklin Square House Corporation, Francis E. Willard Settlement and Benevolent Fraternity of Churches, $3,000 each to the M. S. P. C. A. and to the City Missionary Society; $2,000 each to the Boston Nursery of Blind Babies and the Kindergarten for the Blind.

WALK 20 MILES IN RAIN TO FACE TRIAL: SET FREE

Two Lowell young men, arrested for overspeeding, kept an engagement with Judge Churchill in Dorchester Court today, although to do it they had to walk more than twenty miles in a driving rain and arrived at the courthouse soaked to the skin. Edward J. Jelly, 27, of Lakeview avenue, and Joseph Bonin, 18, of First street, Lowell, were the respondents to the charge of piloting a car 28 miles an hour on Blue Hill aenue. When the judge learned that they had walked from Winchester to be present, for lack of carfare, he placed their cases on file. Patrolman Michael J. Fitzgibbon, who arrested them, urged such action. A lawyer from the automobile association advanced them their fare home.

Asks for Appointment

Harold H. Shumway of Newton has asked to be appointed as administrator of the estate of his wife, Mrs. Amy L. Shumway, of Newton, who died April 18, 1909. The estate is valued at $17,000.

CARNEGIE LAID AT REST IN TARRYTOWN

Only Relatives Accompany Remains to Sleepy Hollow Cemetery

Lenox, Aug. 14.—Through the hills of these Berkshire hills which Andrew Carnegie had come to love and to liken to those of his native Scotland all that was mortal of the iron master passed today.

His coffin, banked high with a few choice floral pieces, went down the mountains of Massachusetts through a pouring rain, down through the lowlands of New York State and into Hillsdale where a special train of one private car awaited its coming.

And then began the final journey along the shores of the Hudson River to that spot outside Tarrytown where Ichabod Crane hid his dreaming—Sleepy Hollow.

Mr. Carnegie's funeral was impressive through its simplicity. The obsequies were private and in contrast to the funerals of some great men. Today's affair was exceptionally simple.

Hardly forty mourners were within Shadow Brook when the mixed quartet from the Brick Presbyterian Church of New York sang the first bars of the hymn "Love That Will Not Let Me Go." Of these, a great majority had arrived during the preceding twelve hours.

And foremost among them all was Charles M. Schwab, the Iron Master's successor as head of the greatest steel company in the world. Mr. Schwab was visibly sorrowful. From time to time as he chatted with friends prior to going to Shadow Brook just the flicker of a smile crossed his features.

"I really can't find anything further to say," said Mr. Schwab to an American representative, "than that which I have already given out. Mr. Carnegie was my friend of forty years' standing. We were the closest of friends and I can hardly find it possible to believe that he has gone on.

"Words fail me at this time. Nothing in years has so affected me, and I join with Mrs. Carnegie and Mrs. Miller, her daughter, in sorrowing at this time."

The Rev. Dr. William Pierson Merrill, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church, Fifth avenue, New York, where Mrs. Carnegie was a regular attendant, declined also to make a statement. He said that the members of the Carnegie family were anxious that as much privacy as possible be given the funeral services.

In New York Mrs. Carnegie and her daughter were regular communicants at the Presbyterian Church. Here in Lenox there is no church of that creed nor is there one in Pittsfield, or in fact in Berkshire county. Mrs. Carnegie and her daughter, as a result, worshipped at the Congregational Church of which the Rev. B. N. Wyman is pastor.

At no time was there any question regarding the funeral services. From the moment of Mr. Carnegie's death it was an established fact that the Rev. Dr. Miller would officiate with Mr. Wyman assisting.

CARNEGIE WAS MISUNDERSTOOD.

"Mr. Carnegie," said Mr. Wyman, "was a truly great man. He was a misunderstood man by some. He was a very religious man in his own way. True it is that he never attended services at our church here in Lenox. But that doesn't indicate that he wasn't religious. On the contrary he was a devout believer and a constant reader of the Bible and the Scriptures.

"Those who intimate to the contrary are doing an injustice and only serving to add to the sorrows of the family. I knew Mr. Carnegie fully as well as any of the residents of this town."

Among those who came up for the funeral services in addition to Mr. Schwab were the Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Lynch, a member of the Carnegie Peace Conference Educational Commission, who is shortly to go to France to aid in the reconstruction work; R. S. Woodward, president of the Carnegie Institute of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Henry Phipps, wife of the one time partner of Mr. Carnegie, and her son, Howard Phipps; [illegible] Root, Jr., son of the noted statesman who was Mr. Carnegie's personal attorney; Oliver Ricketson, husband of Mr. Carnegie's niece, the daughter of Thomas Carnegie; Andrew and Thomas Carnegie of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Oliver Ricketson and James S. Greenway.

Following the opening of the funeral service prayers were read by both the clergymen and then the quartette rendered "He Leadeth Me." Dr. Miller then read from the Scriptures, after which the quartette sang "Crossing the Bar."

Those who accompanied the body of Carnegie from Shadow Brook to Sleepy Hollow Cemetery at Tarrytown, New York, were: Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Miller, Charles A. Schwab, R. A. Frank, Andrew and Morris Carnegie, nephews; Marcia Johnston, niece; Walter Damrosch, New York; Oliver [illegible], Pittsburgh; Thomas Ware, Pittsburgh; James Bertram, former private secretary of Mr. Carnegie, and now secretary of the Carnegie Corporation; John A. Poynton, private secretary of Mr. Carnegie; H. P. Barrow, Mrs. Carnegie's private secretary; Rev. Frank J. Lynch of New York; Dr. Bruce W. Paddock, Pittsfield.

A death mask of Mr. Carnegie was taken yesterday by Augustus Lukeman, a sculptor who has a studio in Stockbridge.

Flying Bicycle Built by Frenchman Is Given a Trial

By Universal Service.

London, Aug. 14.—Flying bicycles are the latest word in aerial fashion.

Gabriel Poulain, noted French cyclist, has succeeded in perfecting an aerocycle which he is able to raise into the air and propel for a distance of twelve yards, attaining a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. Poulain will demonstrate the machine before the French Aero Club shortly.

French and British enthusiasts forecast the day when the aerocycle will be as common as the [illegible]. Great muscular effort is necessary to lift the machine [illegible] the [illegible].

POLICE CHIEF OF SALISBURY RESIGNS.

Salisbury, Aug. 14.—Recent disclosures of conditions at Salisbury Beach, following the American's expose, especially concerning the sale of liquor and beach "mashing," resulted today in the resignation of Chief of Police Wilfred L. Martell and the threatened resignation of Chairman George E. Dow of the Board of Selectmen.

When Dow's action became known certain local interests persuaded him to reconsider, and he did. He is still head of the Board of Selectmen but smarting over what he and Chief Martell call "false reports and unjust criticism." Fred F. Tappan succeeded Martell as chief of police. Tappan was chief in 1917.

The town is all wrought up over conditions at the beach. There have been charges and counter-charges of official neglect and of infringements of the liquor and other laws. Recently feelings crystallized into public protest when reports were published that liquor could be bought at many places and that "there was too much hugging and sparking on the beach."

Other developments are looked for.

GIRL CLAIMS SHE WAS LURED BY A WOMAN

Providence, R. I., Aug. 14.—An amazing story of underworld conditions encompassing her ruin is told by Loretta Pelland, seventeen, a Warren girl, who has been missing from home for three weeks, and who is now at the House of the Good Shepherd under the care of a physician.

As the result of the girl's story, May Gilford, eighteen, is under arrest, and is being arraigned tomorrow, while August Charles, proprietor of an auto tire shop on Aborn street, is held under $1,000 bonds on a technical charge of conducting a nuisance.

The police are searching for other men named by the girl, among them several taxicab drivers, who haunt the passenger stations and make a practice of soliciting the trade of men and women who come to seek diversion in the underworld.

The girl left her home three weeks ago and came to Providence looking for work, she told the police. Here she met May Gilford, who, she declares, offered to show her around the city. She accepted the offer, and was taken to a Broadway lodging house.

There, she declared, she was visited by numerous youths and habitues of the underworld. Later, she said, she was taken to an auto tire shop on Aborn street where several youths attacked her.

Moved by the appeals of the young girl's parents the police instituted a search of the lodging houses of the city in one of which the girl was found. She was taken to the Central Police Station, where she told her story to Captain Robert M. Connors.

A widespread search is being conducted for men and women named by the girl and Grand Jury indictments are to be sought immediately upon their arrest. The police say that the girl's story reveals the methods of the underworld to recruit youthful victims among young girls who fall easy prey to women who seek their confidence and offer to help them.

LOWELL CHILD IS DROWNED IN BROOK

Lowell, Aug. 14.—A one-and-a-half-year-old boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Stanley, lost his life by drowning in Black Rock, within sight of his home at No. 143 Baldwin street.

MAN OF EIGHT WIVES RELIES ON BIBLE

New York, Aug. 14.

King Solomon and King David
In youth led wayward lives.
Each had a few affinities,
Besides their numerous wives.
But when old age came rolling on
With all its aches and qualms,
King Solomon wrote the Proverbs
And David wrote the Psalms.

This jingle was quoted by Charles Hugh Wilson, forty-eight, of Barnesville, Mo., who was arraigned before Justice Wadhams in General Sessions on a charge of bigamy, the prisoner having married eight women.

"I am a close student of the Bible," he told the court. "The Bible says Solomon had more than a thousand wives and David had more than one. I thought it would be all right if I took a few, too."

Wilson, who says he was at one time an instructor in the Y. M. C. A., was arrested in Waupun, Wis., after serving a term for grand larceny. He was brought here to answer an indictment for bigamy in having married Fay J. Zaff of No. 1918 Madison avenue, this city, while he was still the husband of Carolina K. Morris of Mt. Vernon.

"What attraction do you suppose all these women found in you?"

"Well, they were trustful women."

"How did you manage to support them?"

"Oh, I didn't support them all at once, but I made fifty or sixty dollars a day at times as a salesman of novelties, so I had no trouble keeping a few at a time."

Claims Dandruff Will Cause Baldness

If you have dandruff you must get rid of it quick—it's positively dangerous and will surely ruin your hair if you don't.

Dandruffy heads mean faded, brittle, gray, scraggly hair that finally dies and falls out—new hair will not grow—then you are bald and nothing can help you.

The only sure way to abolish dandruff for good is to destroy the germ that causes it. To do this quickly, surely and safely, and at little expense, there is nothing so effective as Parisian sage, which you can get from good druggists everywhere. It is guaranteed to banish dandruff, stop itching scalp and falling hair, and promote a new growth, or the cost, small as it is, will be refunded.

Parisian sage is a scientific preparation that supplies all hair needs—an antiseptic liquid, neither sticky nor greasy, easy to apply and delicately perfumed.

If you want beautiful, soft, thick, lustrous hair, and lots of it, by all means use Parisian sage. Don't delay—begin tonight—a little attention now insures abundant hair for years to come.—Advertisement.

WET GALE SENDS SHIPS SCUDDING INTO PORT

Storm Will Lash Boston Until Midnight, With Heavy Rainfall

Coastwise ships were driven into New England ports today by a fifty-mile gale, accompanied by one of the worst rain storms that has swept the North Atlantic seaboard in many years.

The storm, starting at 11 o'clock last night, increased in fury and showed no sign of abatement before midnight tonight, according to the Weather Bureau.

The storm, which lashed a narrow strip of fifty miles along the shore, was particularly intense locally. Thousands were drenched on the way to work, umbrellas and raincoats providing little shelter from the pelting rain.

Commuters, already inconvenienced by the shattered train service, were particularly hard hit, and many arrived late at office or shop. Forecaster Smith predicted that many coast liners would be compelled to postpone sailings until early tomorrow, unless an unexpected lull occurs.

Nearly two inches of rain have fallen along the Massachusetts coast in the last few hours, or about five times as much as during the preceding thirteen days of August. What Boston may expect is indicated from the New York and New Jersey shore, where the northward moving rain storm broke early yesterday. About four inches of rain fell in New York, and 8.1 inches in Atlantic City, the greatest rainfall in an equal period of time in the history of the Weather Bureau.

Scores of ships sought refuge in Boston harbor while the gale was at its height. Other and smaller boats, unable to make this port, put into Vineyard Haven and prepared to stay until the storm was over. Big ships anchored in the upper harbor of this port were swept from their moorings when the storm came in from the sea and the wind reached a velocity of thirty miles as close as the Graves Light. Extra anchorage was quickly provided.

Seamen making port report that farther out from shore the sea was a-churn and even the biggest boats were tossed about like chips. Among the coast vessels coming into Boston today was the Portland boat Governor Dingley, which was out of Portland before the storm broke, and found it more advisable to complete her trip than go back.

LAWRENCE FIREMEN ASK 12-HOUR DAY

Lawrence, Aug. 14.—The Lawrence firemen have filed a petition for twelve out of twenty-four hours off duty. The petition contains over 3,000 names. Only 1,000 names were necessary, but the firemen easily secured the additional voters in a campaign for the two platoon system. Under the new system, if adopted, the firemen will be on duty eighty-four hours a week.

Alderman Peter Carr, commissioner of public safety, has not only approved the two-platoon system but has favored the plan of the police for one day off in eight. They now have one day off in fifteen.

HOLYOKE CARMEN GET 55-CENT MAXIMUM PAY

Holyoke, Aug. 14.—A maximum wage of 55 cents an hour is set by Henry B. Endicott in his report as arbitrator in the dispute between the Holyoke Street Railway Company and its employes.

The findings in his report are as follows: For the period between October 1, 1918, and June 1, 1919, men employed six months, 37 cents an hour; one year, 38 cents; 18 months, 39 cents; two years, 41 cents; three years and thereafter, 43 cents. From June 1, 1919, men employed six months, 49 cents; one year, 50 cents; two years, 51 cents; three years, 53 cents; thereafter, 55 cents. The men asked for a flat wage of $5 a day.

12,000 PAINTERS GO ON STRIKE IN NEW YORK

New York, Aug. 14.—Twelve thousand painters, paper hangers and decorators are all on strike here today for a five-day week of forty hours and pay of $1 an hour. The men declare they will tie up all work in the city unless these demands are granted in full.

Builders and apartment house owners say the demands cannot possibly be met on the basis of the present rents and other conditions.

KOLCHAK ARMY IS NOW FACING ANNIHILATION

Omsk Government Shattered by Dissensions—Troops Lack War Suppiies

By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The Russian situation again is critical. Admiral Kolchak, picked by the peace conference at Paris to lead a stable Russian government, has utterly failed. His troops are facing annihilation.

Latest advices reaching Washington official and diplomatic circles indicate the so-called Omsk government is sattered by dissensions. Its armies are shy arms and munitions. Shipments sent to them via Siberia either have failed to reach them or have been lost in action and any now on the way will arrive too late to do any good.

COLLAPSE IMMINENT.

Foodstuffs, sent forward as a result of the promise made by the Paris conference have failed to reach their destination. All of the information reaching Washington indicates the complete downfall of the Kolchak government is a matter of weeks, possibly of days.

A complete report detailing exact conditions in Russia, is expected by the State Department very soon. Roland S. Morris, the American Ambassador to Japan, is now en route back to his post at Tokio, following an investigation at first hand of Russian conditions. His preliminary report already is in the hands of Secretary Lansing, but has been withheld from the public.

However, it is understood Morris has reported that the Kolchak forces are being pressed back at every point by the Bolshevist troops, and that some of the most influential of Kolchak's former associates have deserted him.

Dadmun, Harvard '16 Football Captain, Engaged to Wed

The engagement of Harrie H. Dadmun, captain of the 1916 football team at Harvard, and Miss Marian Cameron Potter of Jamestown, N. Y., was announced today at Cambridge, preparatory to the departure of Miss Potter for her home.

Mutual love for athletics and music played a foremost part in the romance.

Miss Potter is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Potter and was graduated from Miss Mason's School, "The Castle," at Tarrytown, N. Y. During the past six months she has been studying at Cambridge, where Mr. Dadmun also is a student in the Harvard Law School. Dadmun is a graduate of Arlington High. With the declaration of war he enlisted in the navy, where he subsequently received the commission of ensign.

CHINA EXPECTS SECURITY, NOT FINANCES

Wants Domination by Foreign Powers Eliminated, Says Foreign Minister

By International News Service.

London, Aug. 14.—"China wants a period of security against exploitation and the elimination of further domination by foreign powers. This security, we think, has not yet been assured by the treaty of Versailles. China wants to develop after her own ideals, not those of some foreign power."

The foregoing declarations were made in an exclusive interview granted the International News Service by Lou Tseng-Tsiang, Chinese Foreign Minister, who has just left for Paris after a visit to London to present the respects of the Chinese president to King George and distinguished members of the British government.

CHINA WANTS SECURITY.

Replying to a question as to what is China's greatest need today, the Chinese Foreign Minister said:

"Most of the people say we need finances most. I do not think so. Finances are certainly important, but there is another more important thing. China expects the friendly nations, particularly America, to give her a period of security—period during which she can reconstruct her administration, which above all, is very important."

Dr. Lou declined to discuss the Shantung negotiations or Japan's policy. He indicated that it would be asking too much from him to predict what would be the result from the widening boycott of Japanese goods throughout China.

SHANTUNG A SORE POINT.

"We feel very deeply about the Shantung affair," said Dr. Lou. "Shantung is a very important province. It is the cradle of Chinese civilization and the birthplace of Confucianism."

Dr. Lou was asked: "In view of Japan's relations with Korea and her activities regarding China during the past few years, what great power does China look to for sympathy and understanding?"

"I sincerely believe America is our disinterested friend. America has done a great deal for my country, but China, in order to be helped, should know that she is able first to help herself."

Rumania Is Ready to Evacuate Budapest

Paris, Aug. 14.—Rumania, in her reply to the entente's recent admonitory note, stated that the Rumanians are ready to evacuate Budapest, it was learned today.

The Rumanian reply was conciliatory in tone, and asserted that Rumania did not wish to defy the powers represented at the Peace Conference.

BIG UNION PLEA TO NATION ON LABOR DAY

Workers' Parades to Be Greater Than Ever, with Demands on Congress ths Keynote

Washington, Aug. 14.—Organized labor is preparing to make Labor Day the occasion of demonstrations in all the principal cities of the country which will bring forcibly to the attention of the people the principles for which organized labor stands and which it seeks to have recognized.

There will be more and greater parades than ever. "Win the War for Freedom" was the slogan of the marchers of the 1918 parades on Labor Day, and "We Will Not Permit Congress to Take Away the Freedom for Which We Fought," is to be the slogan of this year's demonstrations.

DEMAND ON CONGRESS.

From officials of the American Federation of Labor I learned that every speech that will be made on Labor Day will contain a demand that "Congress quit playing politics and get down to business; that it become human in its deliberations and actions, viewing all economic questions from a practical standpoint."

In union meetings now being held throughout the country to arrange for Labor Day celebrations there is said to be much repetition of this wish of Samuel Gompers, made several years ago:

"The average Congressman either does not know or does not care, or he does not dare. Give us men who do know, who do care and who will dare, the remedial legislation will then come."

WANT PROFITEERS CRUSHED.

The membership of organized labor is inclined to be rather bitterly resentful towards Congress for permitting profiteering to flourish without any attempt at interference.

Unless legislation of a remedial character shall be enacted and effective reforms brought about before Labor Day, an attempt will be made to rouse public opinion on this subject to an extent which will insure definite and speedy action.

Officials of the federation say they are receiving information of great discontent from all parts of the country.

NORTH ADAMS CITIZENS ASK FOUR PER CENT. BEER

North Adams, Aug. 14.—Five hundred signatures, mostly of residents in this city, have been affixed to petitions calling upon Senators and Representatives to vote for a law making beer containing 4 per cent. alcohol lawful for manufacture and sale. The petitions, which invoke the aid of the new Initiative and Referendum law, have been filed with the city clerk, Charles S. Brooker.

SEEK FIVE MEN WHO QUIT JAIL AT WORCESTER

Held for Trial, They Beat Guard Insensible and Walk

Worcester, Aug. 14.—Five prisoners awaiting trial in the county jail beat a guard into insensibility and made their escape while the other inmates were attending a stereopticon entertainment in the chapel.

The men who remained in their cells when the others went to the entertainment, secured the guard's keys, and calmly walked out through the office and the front door of the jail.

An alarm was given as soon as the guard regained consciousness, but the prisoners had more than half an hour's start, and it was feared the search would be a long one.

OTHERS AT THE CHAPEL.

According to jail officials, the men in question were George H. Lynch, Worcester; J. Cassazant, Worcester; Alexander McGill, North Grafton; Howard Parson, no home, and Frank Walsh, Oldtown, Me. They were all awaiting trial before the Superior Court which sits the last week in this month.

Their opportunity arrived when the cells were opened to permit the prisoners to go to the chapel for the entertainment. All the others filed out, and escorted by the guards, went to the chapel. Joseph Brogan was the only guard who remained in the cell room, it being believed that the entire prisoner body was at the entertainment.

GUARD BADLY BEATEN.

After the entertainment had started Walsh, who was shamming illness, called to Brogan and asked him for a towel. Brogan entered the cell to be met by a blow in the jaw which floored him. Immediately the other four prisoners, who had been crouching in the back of their cells, rushed in and falling on the prostrate guard beat him into unconsciousness.

The five then took his keys, and letting themselves into the jail office, which was empty, walked quietly out through the main door. All were wearing ordinary civilian clothing, so that their appearance caused no comment.

When Brogan came to he gave the alarm, after which his wounds were dressed. He was badly battered and had two severe cuts on his head.

MILITIA CALLED OUT BY RIOTS IN ILLINOIS

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 14.—Illinois State militia are on their way here from several points in the State today as the result of an outbreak of rioting brought on by a strike at the plant of the Keystone Wire & Steel Company. The troops were called out by Governor Lowden, following trouble yesterday, when six persons, one a woman, were shot and a score injured in rioting.

WARNS UNIONS IN U.S. TO KEEP OUT OF POLITICS

Head of British Seamen Does Not Approve of American Visit by Henderson

By International News Service.

London, Aug. 14.—Havelock Wilson, head of the Seamen's Union, warned American trade unions against forming a political party such as they have in this country.

"The idea is no good," exclaimed Mr. Wilson today, when asked to comment upon the forthcoming trip of Arthur Henderson to the United States to help establish a labor political party.

"If American labor is misled into forming a political party, it will doubtless find, as the British trade unions have done, that they have injured their own cause and thereby become tools of self-seeking politicians.

"British trade unionists found their money devoted often to purposes with which the many were not sympathetic. They also found themselves supporting policies not sanctioned by any trade unions.

"Knowing what I do of America, my best advice is the same as that of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor—stay out of politics, as a labor party would simply divide American trade unionists."

Arthur Henderson refused to answer when asked how large is the element in American labor circles that invited him to that country, and who is financing the project.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoos, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Advertisement.

Is it Possible to Legislate Life and Brains?

Swift & Company is primarily an organization of men, not a collection of brick, mortar, and machinery.

Packing Plants, their equipment and usefulness are only outward symbols of the intelligence, life long experience, and right purpose of the men who compose the organization and of those who direct it.

Will not Government direction of the packing industry, now contemplated by Congress, take over the empty husk of physical property and equipment and sacrifice the initiative, experience and devotion of these men, which is the life itself of the industry?

What legislation, what political adroitness could replace such life and brains, once driven out?

Lazy Life During Hot Months Causes Lazy Liver

AT no other time is the girl so constant a companion of her mother as when she is emerging into womanhood. There are so many questions to ask; so much she needs to know.

And school is over. Here is now a lazy, inactive, carefree life. No wonder she is not always as lively and as well as she should be at her age. Let the mother inquire if the bowels are functioning properly, for there lies the basis of good and poor health.

It will usually be found that a laxative is needed, and none will give safer and quicker relief than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Taken tonight, it acts freely and pleasantly in the morning. The head is again clear, the body light. There is renewed interest in life.

A dose of Syrup Pepsin now and then is almost a necessity for everyone in hot weather. A bottle can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter being the family size, or a free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

POSES ON ROCKS AT WINTHROP AS LORELEI

Stage Vampire, However, Is Unable to Lure Even a Boat Ashore

By FRED J. McISAAC,
Dramatic Editor.

All the vampires I ever saw on stage and screen were so obviously vampires and so ostentatiously wicked that they haven't got a chance in the world now that prohibition protects the men.

If you saw Theda Bara bearing down on you, and you were cold sober, you would be far more likely to dart into a dark alley until she had waddled past, than to stick to your post and get vamped.

I rise to remark, however, that Juliette Day is a prohibition proof vampire. If she wished to remain in the siren business she wouldn't have any trouble in beating the high cost of living. Miss Day's droll eyes, and her wicked little smile, and a cunning little way she has with her would give a Boston ice dealer a thrill.

FORGETS VAMPIRE OFF STAGE.

That's the way she impresses you upon the stage. Off it she is just a little girl and she hasn't a single divorce to her credit, not even one husband as a tribute to her craft. She positively does not work at vamping outside business hours.

"To be sure I have been posing as a Lorelei on the rocks at Winthrop every afternoon in my bathing suit," declared Miss Day, "but the fishing is punk and I haven't lured a single boat ashore. They are all motor launches anyway, and I'll bet if they had them on the Rhine in the ancient days the old-fashioned Lorelei wouldn't have had any luck either."

"This gentleman doesn't believe you went up in an aeroplane last week," said Miss May Dowling, the press agent of "Oh, My Dear!" bursting in on our tête-a-tete and queering me with the little actress.

"I did so," replied Miss Day. "These press agents came around and told me that all I had to do was just fly with Lieutenant Hogue for a few minutes and I would get my picture in all the papers."

"Well, didn't you?" demanded Miss Dowling.

"Yes, but I didn't know I was going to risk my poor little life performing without my share of the gate receipts."

"What do you mean?" we both exclaimed.

"Why, that aviator who took me from Bexford to Nantasket was a little late getting there and it was time for him to do his flying exhibition over Nantasket Beach, so he calmly took me with him.

LOOPED THE LOOP.

"I didn't know where we were or anything, and the first I knew he looped the loop with me. Then he did the 'fluttering leaf.' Does the 'fluttering leaf' mean anything in your life?

"No? Well the aeroplane points its nose down and shakes as it falls. The aviator told me there was no danger. Lord forgive him! Afterwards I heard that about half the time the 'fluttering leaf' dumps the aviator into the ocean.

"How could you talk to him with the noise of the engine?"

"Oh, he would stop the engine to talk to me, and every time he made a remark we would fall about a thousand feet. Felt like being in an elevator when the cable broke. After the first time I wished he was dumb.

"I spent one solid hour in that thing, and I found a grey hair next morning.

"If I ever went into the vampire business again I think I would specialize in aviators."

MAGNET THEATRE TO BE UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

Another big theatrical combination has invaded Dorchester, as is shown by the announcement that the Elm Amusement Company, owning and operating a chain of theatres throughout New England, has secured control of the Magnet Theatre, which has been closed temporarily while a big force of carpenters, painters and decorators were busy preparing it for its reopening next Saturday. After alterations that will give the theatre every modern comfort and convenience the management will direct its attention to the presentation of the photo plays themselves, and in that respect nothing will be left undone to make a program at the Magnet the equal in every way of any metropolitan offering.

THIN, FRAIL FOLKS NEED PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

GEORGIA HAMILTON.

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes ought to brighten, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Bitro-Phosphate has brought about a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION: Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its tendency to increase weight, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

REVERE GIRL OUT FOR SWIMMING HONORS

Miss Mae Hatch Enters American's Charles River Race for Championship

Sanctioned by the New England Amateur Athletic Association, the annual swimming race for girls to be held in the Charles River Basin Saturday afternoon, August 30, is causing widespread discussion in athletic circles, as well as among the general public.

Entries are coming in with a rush. More than forty are already in the hands of the Swimming Editor.

Superintendent West of the Metropolitan Park Police and Lieutenants Chapman and Breivogel of the basin division are making arrangements to handle the tremendous crowds which annually gather for this race.

LAUNCHES TO PATROL COURSE.

The swimming course, from the Metropolitan Park Commission's float opposite the Union Boat Club's quarters, up stream to the stakeboat, near the Harvard bridge, and back, will be patrolled by the fast motor launches of the park police. The crowds on the esplanade will find the park police, as usual, facilitating matters for swimmers, officials and spectators.

All it costs you is carfare, and nothing if you walk. The race is free for spectators and free for contestants. Contestants should not wait until the last minute to enter. If you are going to enter, do it now.

Miss Mae E. Hatch, twenty, of No. 596 Beach street, Revere, writes:

"I live at Revere Beach and hope to show you that Revere Beach has some swimmers. This is my first attempt in a big contest, but I hope it will not be the last."

URGES PUBLIC CONTROL OF TROLLEYS

Expert Wilcox Says British Management Is Far Ahead of That in America

Washington, Aug. 14—Final solution of the electric street railway problem in the United States will never come until power is lodged in the authority which fixes their rates of fare also to fix the wages of employes, in the opinion of W. C. Bliss, chairman of the Rhode Island Public Service Commission, testifying before the Federal Electric Railways Commission.

Municipal ownership of car lines was strongly indorsed by Delos F. Wilcox, New York public utilities expert. He drew a contrast between private operation of American lines and public operation of British lines, vigorously indicating his preference for the latter.

About 100 British cities and towns have municipal ownership, and only in Dublin and on the underground and tube lines in London is private operation followed, Mr. Wilcox said.

"The most striking difference between the operation of car lines abroad and in this country," he continued, "is the conservative policy of operating the British tramways and the reckless policy followed in the operation of lines in this country."

Mr. Wilcox also criticized American managements for their efforts to keep up capitalization.

Mayor Charles P. Gillen of Newark, N. J., predicted that the jitney bus may put the electric lines out of business in his city if carfares continue to rise.

Westboro Carmen Detectives on Spare Time

Westboro, Aug. 14—Conductors on the north branch of the Worcester Consolidated Street Railway are adding to their incomes hunting escaped Lyman School boys who have a weakness for following the electric car tracks after making their escape from the school grounds. Only this week George Storey and Leo [illegible], conductors, got three boys near the Storey farm, East Main street. The school pays $5 for the return of each escaped boy.

IRELAND IS AN AMERICAN QUESTION.

Ireland's past, present and future are too closely linked with the history of the United States to permit any American to ignore the determined effort that the Irish are making to attain their independence. The situation is dealt with in masterly fashion by Edward F. ## BAY STATE SOLDIER WINS BRIDE OVERSEAS

Fisherville, Aug. 14—Private William H. Eccleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleston, Farnumsville, who has been in the English army since the opening of the war, will arrive soon with his bride from overseas. They sailed August 6, on the steamship Carmania, which is due in New York tomorrow.

DENATURED ALCOHOL MAY KILL AGED MAN

Morris Clifford, seventy-nine years old, who it is believed lives in Lynn, was found in a semi-conscious condition on the door steps at No. 9 East Canton street, South End, suffering apparently from drinking denatured alcohol. He is at the City Hospital in a critical condition.

GIRLS! USE LEMONS FOR SUNBURN, TAN

Try it! Make this lemon lotion to whiten your tanned or freckled skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle, sunburn and tan lotion, and complexion whitener, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of Orchard White for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands and see how quickly the freckles, sunburn, windburn and tan disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advertisement.

POSTAL FORCE DEMANDS BIG INCREASE

4,000 Federal Employes to Hold Sunday Meeting in Faneuil Hall

A demand of an increase of [illegible] per cent in the pay of Boston's 4,000 postal employes will be made at a mass meeting of the postal workers in Faneuil Hall Sunday, it was announced today.

The mass meeting call was indorsed by practically every postal employe in the city. Included in the petitioners are 500 women clerks, substitutes and laborers, many of whom are obliged to support their families on the wages they receive from the government.

Senators Henry Cabot Lodge and David I. Walsh, as well as several Representatives from Massachusetts have been invited to attend the meeting.

CHELSEA POST IS GRANTED A CHARTER

The reorganized officials of the [illegible] Chelsea post of the American Legion were granted a charter at State headquarters for the formation of such a post. The charter was recalled some time ago by State Secretary Leo A. Spillane because of an alleged irregularity in the establishment of the post.

Herbert H. [illegible] Post No. [illegible] of the American Legion ceases to exist by the [illegible] of the charter. A meeting of Chelsea ex-service men has been called for August 21, when steps will be taken for the organization of the new post and permanent officers elected.

To Free Your Skin of Hair or Fuzz

(Boudoir Secrets)

No toilet table is complete without a small package of delatone, for with it hair or fuzz can be quickly banished from the skin. To remove hairs you merely mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the objectionable hairs. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed, when it will be found free from hair or blemish. Be sure you get genuine delatone.—Advertisement.

Home Run in 14th Lost Great Battle for Stallings Tribe

The mournful wails
That fill the Summer air
Come from New York—
The flying Reds are there.
Songs of the Bleachers.

By NICK FLATLEY.

Things may have changed out on the trails for the unfortunate Braves, but they remain just the same at home. The Tribe can still lose the tough ones, though it looks like a regular ball club. It took a home run in the fourteenth chapter to spill the beans in the home coming ceremonies, but spilled they were after Richard Rudolph, the Little Master, had indulged in a thrilling mound duel with Wilbur Cooper, the well known peerless southpaw.

The double session carded for today was put over and the flush of double-headers start tomorrow.

Those Braves with Les Mann tucked in the outfield look like a much better team than they did before Charles Lincoln Herzog went to other parts. Mann is a good fielder, thrower, and packs a mean punch. He blew himself to a pair of hits and a couple of nifty catches for a debut stunt.

Small Johnny Rawlings, who is filling the place of the departed cantaloupe merchant, did everything that Charles could have done, and his teamies claim he has been performing that way right along. One diving stop that John made back of second, to force a runner, was as brilliant a piece of infielding as the oldest fan present ever gazed at.

RABBIT AND BOECKEL STAR.

The Rabbit and Boeckel were both very much present also, the former accepting fifteen out of sixteen chances, and the error didn't make the slightest difference, while Tony was the big hitter of the day, busting out a double and a triple on his first two appearances, and being responsible for the rally that gave the Braves their two counters.

Tony also leaned against the agate in the last round, but Southworth managed to capture a terrific liner and erase another homer that would have tossed the game still further into the gloom of night. Ben Smith, who has chopped a place for himself in the outfield, is on the crippled list just at present, packing about a very sore large toe on his left runner.

It will be a week before he's ready to get back into things, though he can be used as a pinch hitter occasionally.

MORE TROUBLE FOR JOHNSON IN MAYS CASE

By W. S. FARNSWORTH.

New York, Aug. 14.—Boisterous Ban Johnson, the Roaming Czar of Baseball, stubbed his toe again in the famous Carl Mays case when he was served with more papers by our good courts.

The blast was so severe that the American League president hurried right out of our fair city. He is said to be panicstricken, and it is reported that he now is in Atlantic City, which is not in New York State.

If he remained here longer there's no telling how many summonses would be handed him.

The Czar is known to be in deadly fear of the law. After serving of the papers in this latest case it is alleged that he departed from the Holland House by the rear fire escape.

'Tis said that one of his trusty valets followed him down the smoke-laden steps with a wet towel which was used to wash his pudgy digets.

The New York American League club issued the following statement, which fully explains completely Johnson's latest troubles:

"On Tuesday night at 11 o'clock President B. B. Johnson of the American League was served with an order of injunction and an order to appear before Mr. George J. Gillespie, an attorney, of No. 20 Vesey street, referee appointed by the court, on Friday, August 15, at 11 o'clock in the morning, for examination before trial; the order being signed by Justice Richard P. Lydon of the Supreme Court of New York."

WESTERN UNION NINES MEET AT CHARLESTOWN

The Western Union Baseball League, comprised of teams representing the traffic, commercial and plant departments, is creating considerable interest among the W. U. employes. Each department is represented by a fast team. The traffic department has won their last five games, and looms up as the possible pennant winner. The next game is set for this afternoon, between the Traffic and Commercial departments, on the Sullivan Square Playground.

ROSLINDALE-ROXBURY IN SATURDAY GAME

The game next Saturday at Fearce Field between Roslindale and Roxbury All-Stars should draw a large crowd, as both teams are going strong, the All-Stars having won their last nine games and Roslindale, with the acquisition of Joe Brawley as pitcher, is competent to defeat the strongest teams in the State. Madden, the All-Star pitcher, has been pitching winning ball and a good game is assured.

MARE HURT IN WEYMOUTH RACE HAD TO BE KILLED

Miss Silver Bond, the bay trotting mare owned by J. W. Linnehan, fell while competing in a race at the Weymouth fair grounds and was injured so badly that she had to be killed. This event was one of a series of races which featured the annual picnic of the Old Colony Grocers' Association.

How to Play Baseball

THIS is the seventy-first of a series of 100 articles by Hugh S. Fullerton, celebrated baseball expert, on "How to Play Baseball." In this lesson Mr. Fullerton continues to tell how to become a base runner. These articles will be a feature of the American's sport pages each day. Don't miss them.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON

There is one feature of base running which was popular and very successful during the days of development of the national sport which has fallen into disuse. The reason for the practical abandonment of this system of gaining ground on the bases appears to be that modern players, especially in the major leagues, have to a great extent sacrificed their individuality through constantly permitting the manager to do all the thinking and to assume all the responsibility.

The system of drawing throws behind the runner and stealing the next base by beating the relayed throw is a consistent one and to the clever player who possesses speed it frequently is safer than to attempt a straight steal of the next base.

The runner on first, if he is clever at jockeying with pitchers and sliding back to the bag, can work the play successfully in many instances.

His effort should be to continue jockeying with the pitcher, always sliding back to the base, until he figures that the catcher will join the effort. His maneuvering should be to draw a quick throw from the catcher to the first baseman. To do this he should leave first at top speed and dash twenty or more feet down the line, stop, appear to hesitate and move the body as if to return to first.

No matter whether the catcher has calculated upon making the snap throw to first or not, he can be tempted into making the throw if the runner appears to have been over daring and gone too far down the line. The instant the catcher moves to throw to first base the runner must spring toward second.

Be careful in bluffing at returning to first base not to change the position of the feet, but to keep them in position for a quick swinging start in the other direction. Sway the body toward first, but instantly swing it in the other direction when the ball is thrown to first, and the motion of the body will aid in the quick start.

The chances of the runner beating the relayed throw are good if the start is well made and besides that, he has the odds in his favor, as two quick throws are necessary to catch him and the chances for a wide or wild throw are doubled.

The play is much more easily made from second to third, if the player by his jockeying succeeds in drawing the long throw from the catcher. He has a greater start, less distance to cover, and the throws aggregate almost double the distance.

The play also can be made by dashing up the line from third toward the plate, drawing the throw from the catcher and making the dash for home as the ball is thrown. The odds against this play being successfully worked are large, but the runner has one advantage—both throws must be made close to him, and balls thrown close to a runner are hard to handle.

It is the one play on which the runner should not slide to the plate. If he is trying to beat the relayed throw home he should run as high as possible save when the catcher is compelled to jump or stretch to reach a high thrown ball. By remaining on his feet he makes it difficult for the catcher to handle a throw from the third baseman and the chances that the ball will strike him are largely increased.

PAUL DOYLE TO BOX JOE DALEY AT LYNN

By JACK CONWAY.

Paul Doyle, who has tried in vain to secure bouts with either Young Kloby or Eddie Shevlin, will receive an opportunity to display his ring class when he opposes Joe Daley, formerly of Brooklyn, but now of South Boston, in a twelve-round bout at the Casino A. C. of Lynn tonight.

Doyle is only twenty years of age, but has proven he is one of the best boxers of his weight in the East. He's one of the few glove wielders who have been able to make things interesting for Benny Leonard since that worthy won the lightweight championship. He carried Leonard along at a torrid clip in a six-round contest at Philadelphia.

Although Doyle is a fast, clever boxer and a stiff puncher, he will meet a worthy opponent in Daley. Daley has met many of the star men of his weight in New York and Philadelphia rings. He recently changed his residence from Brooklyn to South Boston and is now out to prove he is one of the best welterweights in this section of the country.

Daley recently stopped Battling Silva of Gloucester at the Commercial Club. At Newport last week he knocked out Johnny Mello of New Bedford in a couple of rounds.

Charley Silverio and Johnny Morris will clash in the semi-final whirl of eight rounds. There will be another eight-round event between Charley Elkins and Tommy Fox.

Joe Eagan expects to score a victory over George Robinson when he meets the Cambridge middleweight in a twelve-round bout at the Commercial A. C. tomorrow night. Eagan believes he started a new run of victories when he bested Joe Rivers at Lynn last week.

Eagan and Rivers met some time ago at the Armory Club, and their tussle was declared a draw. At the time Dorchester Joseph thought he was entitled to the decision. When right, Eagan and Robinson are both fast boxers, and so should furnish plenty of action.

There is considerable interest in the eight-round semi-final between Willie Roberts of the Radio School and Greek Alger of the South End. Alger got a decision over Roberts a couple of weeks ago after a hard fight. Flash Rogers will meet Frank Tillo in a six-round scrap, while Bobbie O'Brien and George Crouse will also box six rounds.

The bout between Joey Fox, British champion, and Artie Root of Cleveland has been clinched by the Fenway A. A. for next Monday night.

'Ohio Confident and Happy,' Governor Wires Moran

SCHNEIDER REBELS: WILL NOT GO TO COAST

New York, Aug. 14.—Pete Schneider, released Yankee pitcher, is in a state of rebellion and declares he will not join the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast League, to which he was ordered to report by Manager Miller Huggins.

KENNEDY MAKES 45 STRAIGHT BULLSEYES

Caldwell, N. J., Aug. 14.—High scores and bad shooting weather, including a rain storm, during the last two relays of the match, caused about 200 of the 600 competitors to drop out of the members' match of the National Rifle Association yesterday at the rifle range of the United States Navy.

First place was won by Corporal Clarence P. Kennedy of the Rifle Range Detachment at Quantico, Va., who shot his match in record time—three shots a minute.

The members' match consisted of ten shots at 600 yards, but Kennedy, after making a perfect score, continued shooting until he had made forty-five consecutive bullseyes, using no telescope. Eight other contestants made perfect scores, some of them, like Corporal Kennedy, making added bullseyes. Each bullseye scored counted five.

No Betting; No Racing

Montreal, Aug. 14.—Independent race track owners at a meeting here today decided to abandon the idea of conducting race meets here until such time as the federal government repeals the order in council which definitely prohibits betting.

SALE OF MOTOR TIRES

I will save the men of Boston a bunch of money on their Auto Tires. Incidentally, I may unconsciously save some men's lives by this advertisement and cut price sale.

Mr. Man, are you sure your heart is all right? Mr. Man, are you quite sure your blood pressure is normal? When I see a man out of his car along the roadside, changing tires in the hot sun, I often think how dangerous it is. How unnecessary, how heedless. Old tires, well worn, with a blowout inevitable, should be put aside until the cool Fall days. Put on new tires, save the dangerous risk of a blowout in hot weather. Here are prices for the thoughtful owners to seriously consider. They don't come your way every day. Peace of mind and the safety of your health suggest you come to the Houghton & Dutton store at once and buy these big tire bargains.

BROOKES' SKILL UNCANNY, SAYS BEATEN RIVAL

By FRED B. ALEXANDER.

The average tennis fan who attended the semi-final matches at Longwood must have gone home with the idea that [illegible] different types of [illegible] of the game, good, bad and indifferent [illegible] he ever [illegible] red to see again. It [illegible] said, however, that the bad in [illegible] were due to the cut up condition of the new courts and consequently [illegible]

The [illegible] Brookes and Patterson, [illegible] expected, won their position in the final bracket in straight sets, but not without a hard fight. The score of 10-8, 6-2, and 14-12, by which they earned their position in the final bracket, shows how bitterly the first and third sets were contested.

Under the conditions it is hard for one who partook in the matches to pick flaws in either of the losers' game, excepting for Alexander's [illegible] when the [illegible] the Americans favor in the first set [illegible] delivering it [illegible] when it is far away [illegible] true surface [illegible] in doubles, returnable effectively by any good stroke player like Johnston or Tilden.

GOOD IN SHORT LOBS.

In other words, it is not nearly comparable with that of McLoughlin when he was at the top of his game. Patterson on short lobs is deadly but he missed many a deep one, particularly toward the end of the match.

I cannot say enough for the scientific game Brookes put up. His covering of his partner when he was out of position was simply uncanny, and he was always where his opponents did not want him. His service, formerly a point earner, was placed well but not up to his standard of 1914 at Forest Hills in the Davis Cup matches. Much of its sting is gone. It should improve with each day's play.

There was little to criticize in Voshell's play. His service overhead and high volleying were nearly perfect. His return of service and volleys from slow balls around his feet or close to the net might have been improved.

BETTER TEAM WON.

It is hard to criticize one's own play. I realize I made many mistakes, but feel I played as well as I could and have no regrets. We were defeated by a better team.

McLoughlin and Bundy sprung a big surprise on the gallery by playing just about 50 per cent better tennis than they were expected to play. For the first time since 1914, when "Mac" was the best we had and the popular idol of the tennis world, he showed some real tennis. His service, though not that of old, was [illegible] placed and [illegible] covered [illegible] with fine low volleys.

Bundy, too, while he was fresh [illegible] good, safe game, and his [illegible] was exceptionally well placed and deep. His volleying was well above the average, but on his service he fell down at critical times, due really to excellent returns by Johnston.

40,000 APPLAUD GIANTS; REDS WIN TWICE

By DAMON RUNYON.

New York, Aug. 14.—Have you ever heard forty thousand people in full cry?

They make a power o' noise. They —but then, let's not get ahead of our story, which is the story of the defeat of the New York Giants by the Cincinnati Reds at the Polo Grounds in both games of a double-header.

The scores were 4 to 3 and 2 to 1 [illegible]

Heinie Groh was a Giant in the days of his baseball adolescence, and mighty proud of that fact, too, so proud that when he got a little money together, and opened a little place of business in his home town of Rochester, N. Y., he called it "The Little Giant."

AFTER "TRANSOM" TRADE.

"I'm doing pretty good," Heinie [illegible]

The baseball immature are sometimes valuable as trading material, and presently the proprietor of "The Little Giant" found himself in Cincinnati, O., on a tailend club, and a very disconsolate young man.

SLIM SALLEE, TOO.

But, as we said before, baseball chickens come home to roost, and Heinie Groh came back to the Polo Grounds with the Cincinnati Reds to do a very large share in the business of knocking out New York's pennant hopes. He hit a home run that proved the deciding tally of the first game, and all the way he was a source of exasperation to 40,000 persons who dearly desired the Giants to win.

With Heinie Groh was another chicken coming home to roost, a lean, leathery, leisurely old rooster, so to speak, an ancient bird of evil omen to the New York Giants in the person of Slim Sallee, who used to beat 'em by the [illegible] under McGraw.

In the second game Sallee held the Giants to [illegible] Magee, quaintest [illegible] the big [illegible] the two runs that won the game.

"I'm having a hard time [illegible] in left field picking out the [illegible] among the pop bottles [illegible] a fly," complained "Sherry" Magee querulously, which is indicative of how [illegible] to see the Giants win.

A "BASEBALL FRANKENSTEIN."

On the bench of the Reds, or on their coaching lines, perched during the games, not another chicken perhaps, but a sort of Baseball Frankenstein, reared by John J. McGraw to his own pennant destruction.

"Canned" by the parsimonious owners of the Philadelphia Club, Moran caught on with McGraw as a coach for the Giants, but when managerial vacancy developed at Cincinnati, McGraw sent Moran there. The ways of baseball fate are inscrutable.

Most fans regard this as the deciding series of the National League campaign. That is the reason why 40,000 were at the opener.

CORBETT'S COLUMN

Those who term long distance walking "the greatest exercise in the world, point to the longevity of the many champions of that sport to bear them out.

Edward Payson Weston and Dan O'Leary, the most remarkable of all the distance hikers, are still living—and both are in splendid physical condition for their advanced years. O'Leary is seventy-eight and Weston eighty-three. And of late both have been talking about indulging in at lest one more jaunt over the landscape.

No more wonderful demonstration of athletic prowess in the supposedly years of dotage ever was given than that by Weston five years ago.

The lure of the open country, stilled for a rather long period of time, overcame him and, although Weston was seventy-eight then, he determined upon a 4,000-mile walk from Portland, Me., to San Francisco.

"It's crazy to even think of doing it," was the general sentiment when Weston announced his plans.

RIVALS FOR 45 YEARS.

O'Leary and Weston have been walking rivals for nearly 45 years. They first met in competition in Chicago in 1875 and for nearly two decades afterward fought it out for prizes and glory.

[illegible] through the [illegible] enjoyed [illegible] champions [illegible] health builders [illegible] and died.

Another famous pedestrian of years ago who still lives—is Alexander [illegible] like 75 years old now and never has known a really sick day.

Libby established many unique records during his [illegible] of them still stand [illegible] He once met [illegible] Norman Taylor [illegible] match.

Taylor was privileged to run ten miles while Libby was confined to walking six miles and one-half.

Libby won the race by a margin of several minutes. Walking backward one-half mile in 3 minutes and 12 seconds was another Libby achievement.

Henry Schmehl of Chicago is around seventy—and in the best of health. He is just another instance of what remarkable results can come from walking.

A rather sickly youth he took up long walks so as to keep out of doors. The sport finally fascinated him and his ability as a distance walker became so great that he decided to enter the professional ranks.

BEAT OUT SIX WALKERS.

Back in 1876 Schmehl tackled both O'Leary and Weston in pedestrian classics in the Mechanics Pavilion [illegible] but was beat in both.

However, in less than a year Schmehl by constant [illegible] had developed [illegible] greatness that it was conceded he could give both O'Leary and Weston a lacing if he was put to another middle distance test against them.

An outstanding feat in Schmehl's career was staged in 1878. He met three firemen and three policemen in a six [illegible] They were privileged to leave the track to go out to eat and sleep, the six men walking in relays.

But the conditions forced Schmehl to stay on the course for the entire six days. Yet he won, and easily, thus showing greater endurance than six supposedly durable athletes.

WALK AND LIVE LONGER.

There are at this time in the United States a hundred men and more—beyond the age of seventy who owe their wonderful physical fitness to the fact that they took up long distance walking in their youth—and have stuck to it through the years since then.

The hikes kept them out in the open; filled their lungs with clear, invigorating air, built up the muscles of their arms, legs and entire body, gave to them the health foundation that had carried them along to ripe old age.

Charles Clauston of St. Charles, Ill., James McAndrews of Chicago, an ex-Congressman, Paddy Fitzgerald, who was first to do 600 miles in 6 go-as-you-please days, John Hughes, known as the "Lepper" in running circles 40 years ago, Joseph [illegible] the [illegible] who [illegible] 10-mile walking race proposed last year by Weston and open only to men beyond 70.

If you would live long—live happily—live healthy—walk—and then walk some more. Don't waddle along. Throw back your shoulders, breathe deeply, swing your arms freely, stride briskly. That's real walking.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR ON WAY FOR ROLLER POLO

Prospects for a successful year for roller polo are strong, according to followers of the game. The American Polo League of last year, re-inforced by the addition of a few new cities, will get under way in a short time on what promises to be a successful season. Several new professional teams are being organized, one of which will be located in either Cambridge or Boston. Teams are being organized in New York and Providence which give promise of turning out some fine players. The Providence team of last year proved a big success and developed several players who will be with the American League polo team this season. Fred Moore, president of the American Polo League, is planning to add more teams to the league and is already looking around for new men.

Explains Heat

That rocks and metals should be heated above their melting points and yet not become actually liquid is explainable by the enormous pressure to which they are subjected. Thus it has been calculated that quartz rock when under the pressure prevailing at the earth's centre would not melt at a lower temperature than [illegible] degrees. But that is [illegible] higher than the most careful investigations show to exist in the sun itself!

We have no means of telling what the effect of such a temperature, if it could be attained, would be upon matter. ## Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent. or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupify, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. There can be no danger in the use of Castoria if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher as it contains no opiates or narcotics of any kind.

CASTORIA

Let's Think It Over.

There is such a thing as saying too much on any subject, and the "grand-stand" talker sooner or later becomes a bore. The truth is always welcomed, and the truth reiterated and confirmed is more than welcome—it reaches your innermost soul.

Fletcher's Castoria is all its advertising has claimed for it. Scrutinized by the microscope of public opinion and used for over thirty years it stands without a peer in the hearts of thoughtful, cautious, discerning Mothers. And once used, mother love—there is no substitute for mother love—will scorn to try a "substitute" or a "just-as-good".

Masquerading under many names drugs that are injurious to the tender babe have found their way into some households, but the light of experience soon casts them out. Are they cast out before it is too late?

La-May Face Powder Is Harmless to the Most Delicate Skin

A specialist [illegible] perfected a pure face powder that [illegible] will not cause enlarged pores, blackheads and irritation. [illegible] is [illegible] It is guaranteed pure and harmless to the most delicate baby skin. It beautifies wonderfully because it helps to clear and lighten the skin and protect the complexion from blemishes. This new kind of face powder is made largely of an ingredient that skin specialists [illegible] in the treatment of the complexion. And it really stays on better than any other face powder. Of course, saying this, every one knows we mean the famous La-may Powder (French, Poudre L'Ame). This is the powder that does not contain starchy rice powder or dangerous white lead to make it adhere. White lead is a deadly poison, and rice powder turns into a gluey paste that makes enlarged pores, blackheads and rice powder irritations. Because La-may is so pure and because it stays on so well it is now used by over a million American women. All dealers carry the large box, and many dealers also carry the small trial size. Be sure to try La-may. Then you will really know a perfect face powder. You will be sorry if you take a substitute. When you use this harmless powder and see how beautifully it improves your complexion you will understand why La-may so quickly became the most popular beauty powder sold in America. Save this notice.

Stocks Weak in Boston and New York During Dull Morning

LOCAL MARKET REACTS WITH NEW YORK

Price irregularity featured trading on the Boston exchange when business began and following the New York lead the local market soon weakened. It had a heavy undertone, in fact, at the opening. Business was quiet all the morning.

American Telephone was active and opened with a fractional gain. It showed a small loss later in the first hour but by noon was up a point.

Swift & Co. began with a half-point gain at 137, but joined in the recessional. At its morning lowest it was off four points. By noon it had made partial recovery. It was extensively traded in.

Among weakest issues were Swift International, International Products, Warren Brothers, Mullins Body, Copper Range, Isle Royale, Osceola, U. S. Smelting, Massachusetts Gas and New Haven. They receded during the morning from one to more than two points.

Strong stocks included Boston Elevated, Boston & Maine, United Fruit, Helvetia, Davis-Daly, American Agricultural Chemical and United Drug second preferred. They were up at their highest from fractions to two points. United Drug first preferred advanced from 52 to 53 on one sale.

Chicago Grain Market

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Corn opened 1 to 2c lower. Oats were ½ to ⅞ lower. Provisions opened lower. Opening prices were: Corn—September, 1.90, to 1.90½; December, 1.50¼ to 1.51; May, 1.46 to 1.46½. Oats: September, 73½; December, 75¼; May, 81⅛. Lard: September, 30.67; October, 30.67.

Pittsfield, Mass., has sold to S. N. Bond & Co. at 4.37 per cent discount plus $3.25 premium a temporary loan of $75,000 dated August 11 and maturing December 18, 1919.

THE TRUTH ABOUT IRELAND

During the American Revolution the Fathers of our Republic appealed to the Irish People against British tyranny and asked for sympathetic judgment. History records that they got not only sympathy but aid.

Today, we Americans of Irish blood appeal in turn to our fair-minded and liberty-loving fellow Americans to judge and aid the Irish cause, after reading the books listed below.

We phrase our appeal in the selfsame words that our American forefathers used when appealing to Ireland:

"We are desirous of possessing the good opinion of the virtuous and humane. We are peculiarly desirous of furnishing you with the true state of our motives and objects, the better to enable you to judge of our conduct with accuracy, and determine the merits of the controversy with impartiality and precision."

LABOR FEAR IS BIG BEAR FACTOR

Market Irregular at Opening and Takes a Downward Course

By W. H. ROSS,
Financial Editor.

Stocks were weak in New York at noon, but were above their low for the morning. After a mixed start and long continued easing off they began to rally late in the second hour. The upward movement was not pronounced, but it was general. The market was quiet, morning transactions totalling about 480,000 shares.

Oils were the strongest class, a number showing gains. Among steels Crucible was in greatest demand. It advanced after early weakness. Coppers and rails descended and all issues showed group weakness. Leathers were especially depressed.

The morning call rate was 5 per cent.

Among weakest stocks at 12 o'clock were Hide and Leather common and preferred, Central Leather, Sumatra, Baldwin, Pressed Steel Car, Union Pacific, Wilson & Co. and White Motor. They had declined from one to more than six points, Wilson & Co. showing the largest loss.

Issues to show gains included Pan American, Sinclair, N. Y. Royal Dutch, American International, American Locomotive, Crucible and Southern Pacific. They advanced from fractions to more than two points. Pan American showed the largest gain.

U. S. Steel was off ¼ at 103, after ranging from 102⅝ to 103¾.

OPENS IRREGULAR, TURNS WEAK.

No decided trend was shown at the opening and after a few minutes of irregularity prices moved downward. At the end of half an hour the market was weak. Little demand for stocks developed overnight and it was soon found that the supply was excessive. Bears resumed the raid of yesterday, which had its basis in a cabled statement by Samuel Gompers favoring the Plumb plan for rail control. Other reports indicated a combine soon by railway brotherhoods and mine organizations. Wall Street fears organized labor will attempt in this country the policy of the British unions. When the exchange reopened today the labor situation was again the dominating influence and it goes without saying that it operated to the advantage of the bear element.

PRICES STEADILY DECLINED.

Throughout the first hour and later in the morning stocks steadily declined. When they rallied individually the recovery was feeble and brief. It was an orderly descent, however, and the recessional was not pronounced. What little support the market had was from the outside. Speculation is still alluring to many casual dabblers. They accounted for the bulk of the buying at the outset. Trading was of less volume than yesterday. It was a comparatively dull morning on the exchange. Business was confined mainly to operations by the professional crowd, and that it will remain of this character for some time is expected. It will take a great deal to cause further liquidation, it is believed. That was about completed by recent breaks. Stocks are now strongly held.

SUGAR CROP IS ONE MILLION TONS SMALLER

No price change is reported in the sugar market but the supply of New York refiners is increasing. On Tuesday the American Sugar Refinery Co. received 15,135 bags from Porto Rico.

While cane sugar production in this country and its possessions during 1918-1919 increased 10,000 tons, compared with the previous season, the decrease in world output was 340,371 tons. These are Willett and Gray estimates. The same authority reports a decrease of 7975 tons in American beet sugar production, while for the world the curtailment amounts to 642,134 tons. In fact, the world produced nearly 1,000,000 tons less sugar during the 1918-1919 period than during the immediately preceding one.

But the decrease, at present estimated at 982,555 tons, is 687,804 tons less than was forecast in November last.

Demand for sugar is greater at the present time than ever in the world's history and Europe is depending upon American refineries for a very large proportion of its supply. Cuba is producing most of the cane product and since the war began, has become one of the most prosperous countries in the world. It is believed there that if there is any change in the price of sugar it will go up rather than come down. Cubans are figuring on getting still larger financial returns from next year's crop than they obtained from the current one.

MORE COPPER INQUIRY BUT MARKET IS DULL

While the copper market remains very dull more inquiry for metal is reported. This has given the trade some encouragement. But neither foreign demand nor domestic consumption has come up to expectations of a month ago. The report that the government is going to put its brass holdings on the market is causing concern. That would affect brass manufacturers, who are among largest consumers of copper.

Large producers are holding firm for 24 cents for September copper, and want 23½ for August delivery. Smaller interest are quoting 22 cents a pound for less. But they have not much copper to sell at such prices.

Old Colony Woolen Profits

Earnings of the Old Colony Woolen Mills Company for 1918, resulted in profits of $248,597, and at the beginning of this year it had no outstanding notes payable. It operates a plant at Rochester, N. H., with eleven sets of cards and fifty-one looms, and another at Sangerville, Me., with eight sets of cards and fifty-two looms. These mills have completed army contracts and now have enough orders for civilian goods to keep busy until December 1 next. They have declined to book orders at present beyond that date. Directors are: M. Douglas Flattery, chairman, Ashton L. Carr, H. M. Carr, L. J. Coburn, Thomas E. Eaton, treasurer, F. Murray Forbes, Eli Gledhill, president, Waldo F. Glidden, James Jackson, Nathaniel W. Niles and Roger S. Warner.

Robertson Paper Directors

The Robertson Paper Co. has enlarged its board of directors, which now comprises: President, Earnest E. Smith; vice-president, H. E. Hasty, resident manager at the property; treasurer, H. E. Hildreth, director Waltham Watch Co.; E. Leonard Beard, Jr., capitalist, New York; Gasper G. Bacon, attorney, Boston; Valentine Hollingsworth, treasurer of Hollingsworth & Vose Co.

Cotton Market Opens Lower

New York, Aug. 14.—Active Liverpool and other foreign selling gave the cotton market an easy opening, with prices 24 to 36 points net lower. But active buying caused a quick recovery. From the lowest initial levels the list jumped 40 to 45 points. At the end of twenty minutes prices were 20 points below the highest. Opening prices were: October, 31.15; December, 31.20; January, 31.05; March, 31.08; May, 31.07.

Dividend Declarations

Pittsburgh Brewing Co. has declared regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. on common and 1¾ per cent. on preferred stock.

Atlas Powder Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent. on common, payable Sept. 10 to stock of record Aug. 30.

Quaker Oats Co. declared regular quarterly dividends of 3 per cent. on common and 1½ per cent. on preferred, common payable Oct. 15 to stock of record Oct. 1, and preferred Nov. 29 to stock of record Nov. 1.

North Pennsylvania Railroad declared regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent., payable Aug. 25 as registered Aug. 15.

F. W. Woolworth Co. declared regular quarterly dividend of $1, payable Sept. 2 to stock of record Aug. 22.

Manhattan Shirt Co. declared quarterly dividend of 43¾c a share on new common stock of $25 par value, payable Sept. 2 to holders of record Aug. 22.

Republic Oil Refining Co. declared a dividend of 1 per cent. payable Aug. 20 on stock of record Aug. 15.

One Way to Reduce the High Cost of Living

The plan of the New England Farm and Food Foundation, just organized to aid the New England farmers to more efficient production, is a system which the American has advocated persistently for the last ten years. It is one way to reduce the cost of living. We cannot aid the consumer by reducing the price of the farmer's products below a reasonable profit to the farmer, and the farmer is not today, especially in New England, receiving any more than a fair profit for his produce.

Therefore, the effort must be made in other directions. One is in the direction of reducing the cost of production on the farm; the other is reducing the cost of distribution of the farm products to the consumer.

In the last one hundred years the great advance in machinery has thrown out of employment hundreds and thousands, yes, millions of workmen, for almost every week some machine that could do the work of ten or one hundred men is being introduced. The workmen at first opposed these new machines, but had to yield to the inevitable advance in the arts and sciences which, while cruel to the particular workmen who happen to be affected, are beneficial to the whole society.

So the middleman is today suffering what the workingmen have been suffering for several generations. He is being driven out slowly by the great trusts and by great chain stores and by co-operative societies which often absorb all the benefits themselves. But a middleman who can be displaced by a more efficient means of distribution between producer and consumer is as unnecessary and economically is as wasteful as a workingman whose labor a machine can do one hundred times as fast. So the cost of living, if it is to be reduced at all, must be reduced by constructive efforts which shall take out of the final cost to the consumer all unnecessary profits between the farmer and the consumer and will aid the farmer to reduce the cost of producing on his farm so that he can, while still maintaining a reasonable profit, reduce the price he charges to the consumer.

Recent Elections Repudiate League of Nations

The result of the bi-election to Congress in Kentucky is one more significant straw which indicates the direction in which the political wind is blowing, and blowing strong. In a district in Kentucky the Democratic member of Congress died recently and an election was held last Saturday to fill the dead man's shoes. The man who died was a Democrat and every man who preceded him since the beginning of the republic had been a Democrat. The district has never gone Republican since the Republican party was founded, yet last Saturday a Republican candidate was elected!

But this is not all. That successful Republican candidate went upon the public platform during the campaign and denounced the present form of the League of Nations, pointed out its defects, showed that by it America was giving up everything that was most precious among her traditions, was repudiating the advice and example of all her great statesmen of the past from Washington, Jefferson, Jackson to Lincoln, that by it we were not only repudiating the advice and principles of our great statesmen of the past, but we were actually repudiating the principles and promises of the now reigning President of the United States, repudiating the professions which we made concerning the objects for which we were fighting, and breaking the solemn promises which the President made in our behalf to the people of the world if victory were given by fate to us.

The friends of the successful candidate for Congress urged him not to make this issue, not to drag the President into the issue, because the President was supposed to be strong in the South, and it was supposed to be difficult to oppose a League of Nations to which everybody in the beginning was pledged, and which people are now opposing only because it is the opposite kind of League of Nations which the President has produced from that which he promised and from that which alone he said would be a useful league, and because it is the VERY league which he pronounced would be useless and dangerous.

They had another bi-election in Minnesota. That district, too, had elected a Democrat to Congress a few months ago. He died and another election was held to fill his place. In that campaign also the Republican candidate opposed the League of Nations and went to the voters upon that issue, and the district changed over upon that issue from the Democratic to the Republican column.

Reports are coming to us which indicate that the wind is blowing from the same direction in England likewise. There, too, the results of the last general election are being reversed upon the issue of the League of Nations and upon the popular reaction against all the imperialistic and hypocritical practices of which the British government has been guilty. Since the last general election every bi-election to fill a vacancy in England has gone against the Lloyd George ministry on the issue of the League of Nations, the Treaty of Peace and the conduct of Great Britain, France and the United States and Russia. The English people know a great deal more about the truth concerning Russia than the Americans do, and the English liberals and the workingmen are up in arms against the private wars being waged against the Russian people.

Is the pendulum swinging once more toward democracy? Have the people of the world recovered their voice? Are they beginning to see through the crimes which are being committed by the governments of Great Britain, France and the United States against democracy, sugar-coated though it is with unctuous phrases about "self-determination of peoples," "freedom of the seas," "acid tests," wars "making the world safe for democracy," "voices in the air" of "peoples everywhere," and "breaking the eart of the world"?

More Truth Than Poetry

THE PACE THAT KILLED

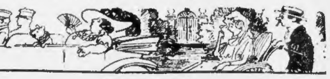
By S. E. KISER.

WHEN he was pulling down the sum of twenty
And no one-hundredths every seven days,
She thought, or seemed to think, it would be plenty,
For she could help him in so many ways.
"I'll make my clothes," she said, "and do our cooking,
And two can live, you know, for less than one."
In those days she was pretty, he good looking,
And so their glad adventure was begun.

THE forty he was getting five years later
Was far too little to supply her needs;
She wished that his abilities were greater,
And scorned her rhinestone trinkets and glass beads;
Sometimes she was inclined, indeed, to wonder
If, after all, her choice was wisely made;
"So often marriage is a fatal blunder,"
She thought in secret, and became afraid.

AT thirty-five her doubts were disappearing;
Another whom she knew she might have had
Was getting millions rapidly and fearing
The solemn courts might think his methods bad.
The man with whom her lot was cast had merely
Ten thousand yearly, wherefore, by degrees
She ceased to doubt that she had paid too dearly
For listening to Love's persuasive pleas.

SPURRED always to his limit, he was taking
Home twenty thousand per, at middle age;
But, knowing what some other men were making,
She found no comfort in his puny wage.
He killed the cheerful hope with which she started,
Her hero had turned out to be a myth;
She tried her best and then died broken-hearted
Bcause she couldn't outdo Mrs. Smith.



He Mustn't Expect Too Much There.

After one has looked over Mack Sennett's group one is inclined to wonder whether Mack ever considers how inferior Heaven is going to be to this place.

Perhaps.

Investigation may not clear
The lines of trouble from your brow,
But maybe by this time next year
They'll fix it so that you may know
Who gets your money, anyhow.

Ye TOWNE GOSSIP

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

By K. C. B.

"WE offer any part of 205 ——— syndicate units at $27 each, and on any such purchase we will pay $7 per share for a four-month option at $40 per unit. This offer is subject to prior sale or change of price."

IT'S A "special bulletin."

• • •

ABOUT OIL stock.

• • •

AND IT came to me.

• • •

IN MY daily mail.

• • •

FROM A State street broker.

• • •

AND WHEN I had read it.

• • •

• • •

CAME INTO my mind.

• • •

AND I'VE determined.

• • •

TO GO into business.

• • •

AND SELL things.

• • •

AND I'VE looked around.

• • •

AMONG MY possessions.

• • •

AND RIGHT on my desk.

• • •

IS A flashlight.

• • •

THAT IS nickel plated.

• • •

AND BRIGHTLY polished.

• • •

AND VERY handsome.

• • •

AND IT'S all right.

• • •

EXCEPT FOR one thing.

• • •

IT WON'T burn.

• • •

AND I'M going to sell it.

• • •

AND THE price I've fixed

• • •

IS TWO dollars.

• • •

OR IF you'd rather.

• • •

YOU CAN pay two seventy.

• • •

FOR A four-month option.

• • •

TO BUY back the lamp.

• • •

FOR FOUR dollars.

• • •

BUT IF in the meantime.

• • •

YOU CAN sell it.

• • •

IT WILL be all right.

• • •

AND MAYBE you can.

• • •

BECAUSE THERE isn't any reason.

• • •

WHY SOME day.

• • •

YOU COULDN'T slip away.

• • •

AND EVADE the attendant.

• • •

AND FIND another inmate.

• • •

AND SELL it to him.

AND IF it happens.

• • •

YOU DON'T want the lamp.

• • •

I HAVE a fly swatter.

• • •

WITH A wire handle.

• • •

THAT DOUBLES up.

• • •

LIKE A pair of scissors.

• • •

WHENEVER I swat.

• • •

AND I'LL sell that.

• • •

AND THE price I ask.

• • •

IS FIVE cents.

• • •

OR I'LL take a dime.

• • •

AND GIVE you a nickel.

• • •

FOR AN option.

• • •

TO BUY it back.

• • •

IF YOU want it.

• • •

AT THE end of four months.

• • •

FOR TWO dollars.

• • •

OR TWO hundred dollars.

• • •

WHICHEVER YOU like.

• • •

AND IF you buy them.

• • •

I WANT to suggest.

• • •

THAT YOU use the flashlight.

• • •

JUST IN the daytime.

• • •

AND THE fly swatter.

• • •

JUST IN the Winter.

• • •

BECAUSE IN that way.

• • •

IT WILL be just the same.

• • •

AS HAVING oil stock.

• • •

AND NO oil.

I THANK you. . .

WAR BLAMED FOR LOOSE MORALS IN ENGLAND

Read About It in the Next Boston Sunday Advertiser

"English marriage ties are looser than those of America," writes Lady Beecham, a prominent American woman married to an English millionaire.

"In nothing has the war done more harm," recently declared Sir Charles John Darling, judge of the King's Bench Division, and one of the highest judges in England.

"This last has reached a point that can be seen in a walk along the street. Women differ by the width of heaven from what their mothers were."

The Rev. Dr. Herbert J. Campbell, one of the most eloquent and revered London divines of today, has issued this warning:

"A lowered moral standard among our wives and mothers would threaten the very existence of our nation and be an infinitely worse calamity than defeat by the enemy in war. Unhappily, I fear that we are threatened with the great calamity."

The fact is, divorce is rampant in England. It is sweeping the country like a devastating epidemic, and homes are being laid waste in its wake, in unprecedented numbers. And to the war is given the blame for this wreckage, too. Life was abnormal; morals became lax; absence made too many hearts grow fonder of some one nearer home than the husband in France.

This abnormal situation, a very real condition of British life today and a phase of the unrest there, is discussed in interesting detail in a special article in the next Boston Sunday Advertiser.

You will find in its columns, too, many other things of unusual interest. There is an article by Dr. W. H. Ballou, whose instructive scientific articles you have hitherto found so fascinating. Next Sunday he will tell you all about how sun spots touch off our volcanoes. You will note there is not on the sun at present the biggest sun spot ever noticed, and that recently a second one has appeared. Simultaneously disasterous volcanic eruptions have occurred in Java, where thousands perished last May; in Central America, where for the second time the city of San Salvador was nearly destroyed; Japan, the Aleutian Islands and Alaska mainland. Dr. Ballou tells you all about sun spots, magnetic storms and other phenomena which affect our earthly life, but of which we most of us know little.

The historical secrets of those master-criminals, the de Medici family, who held crime-filled sway for nearly 300 years, have now come to light; and through letters made public for the first time, the thrilling story of their machinations is pieced together. More strange than fiction, and more absorbing, is the two-page recital of next Sunday, copiously illustrated.

How the daughter of a poor Italian professor, now known as the most beautiful woman in Europe, and the recently divorced wife of the Prince Riabouschinsky, may soon become the wife of the rich and famous "Bobby" Goelet—and what society may do about it, is another interesting feature.

"Father" thought the lion was the king of beasts, but he finds it isn't.

Guess who.

The Income Tax

The English income tax, first imposed by Pitt in 1798 as a war tax, was abolished at the Peace of Amiens in 1801, and again imposed on the resumption of hostilities in 1803. At the downfall of Napoleon it ceased to be levied for twenty-six years—1816-1842—when it was reimposed by Sir Robert Peel, in June, 1842, at seven pence in the pound, and produced about five million pounds. As showing the rapid advance of the country in prosperity, the tax which produced about seven hundred and ten thousand pounds for each penny of tax in 1842 yielded two million six hundred and ninety-one thousand four hundred and twenty-two pounds per penny in 1909-1910, and at the present time considerably over three million pounds for each penny.

Carnegie's Work
Two More Men Needed
Barbarian Types
40,000 Polish Jews

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1919.)

The distinguished Mr. Kolchak of Russia appears finally to have reached the end of his little rope. The United States and some other governments, stupidly trying to force on Russia a hand-picked reactionary ruler, have perhaps learned a lesson. Nobody in the United States government is in any way equipped to select rulers or make laws for nations across the water. Two hundred million Russians will decide what they want to do without help from us. The sooner the people of this country instruct their official employes to mind the business of this country the better it will be for the United States.

Carnegie died rich, after all, but not disgraced. During the last few years he was not able, mentally, to look after his great fortune. Otherwise he might have carried out his plan to give it all away, except a few millions for his daughter.

Carnegie did something more important than mere giving of money. He made giving on a big scale fashionable in the United States. He chose for the epitaph to be written on his tomb, these wise words, "Here lies a man who knew how to enlist in his service better men than himself."

He was the first American of enormous wealth to say that millions accumulated by hiring better men than himself were not all his.

His name will be remembered because it is carved in stone above the doors of many libraries. He was impressed by Carlisle's saying that on his way to Edinburgh to get books he passed many jails, but not one library. If Carlisle could take the trip over again he would pass more Carnegie libraries than jails.

Carnegie wisdom was shown in his giving libraries and not giving books. He knew how to build a library, he would not have known how to choose its books.

Two men the world needs to complete Carnegie's work: One man to fill his libraries with the right books and, much harder to find, another man to make the people read the books.

Don't be impatient about the world's condition until you consider what kind of people live on earth. You would not expect to chain a bear if every other link were made of paper. You can hardly expect a human race to carry its heavy load successfully when every other human is a savage. One man was arrested two days ago for beating his own underfed baby. There were one hundred and eleven cuts on his body and the boy may die. If he does not die the father will be punished, probably less severely than he would have been had he stolen a horse.

Some men are on trial for tarring and feathering a woman, a Mrs. La Fleche. The tar was spread over her naked body, almost boiling hot, and she is in the hospital struggling for life. One of the men that attacked her is held in one thousand dollars bail. If he had been engaged in some ordinary swindle he would have been held in five or ten thousand dollars bail.

You must not expect too much of a historical period in which low class human beings and high justice agree that the vilest cruelty is not the most serious offence.

International laws governing use of the air are published. There exists an International Commission for air navigation. It will not surprise you to learn that the commission consists of two representatives from the United States, two each from France, Italy, Japan, one vote for Great Britain, one for India, one for each British Dominion. This gentle arrangement giving the most votes to England, proves the intelligence of England. She was supreme on the old ocean, made of water. She means to be supreme in the new ocean of air. So far as this country is concerned, she will probably be allowed to have what she wants.

Forty thousand Polish Jews ask permission to come to this country. They should be made eagerly welcome here. And if they come, Poland will learn by experience what happened to Portugal and Spain, when brutal religious hatred drove out all the Jews, compelling them to build up, which they promptly did, Holland and England.

Ignorance and stupidity would envy those fortunes, not knowing that for every dollar that a Jew earns in commerce or industry, non-Jews make many dollars. The Jewish race is a radio-active force in the business of the world, in commerce and industry. It is a force that quickens commerce and increases, directly and immediately, the prosperity of all.

Read the history of Spain after bigotry, with fagot and sword, had driven out the Jews.
